WILLOWS ELKS LODGE 1786

THE ANTLERS NEWSLETTER

READY ELKS~LET'S GO

Willows Elks Lodge #1786 Host CHEA President's Visit (October 1–4)

The weekend kicked off Thursday evening as Association Vice Presidents (AVPs) gathered at our lodge for social hour while awaiting the arrival of CHEA President Lynn Glick and First Partner Jeff. The group gathered for a traditional 11 O'Clock Toast before wrapping up the evening.

Friday morning began with an insightful tour of Carrier Farms, followed by a delicious lunch hosted by the Chico Elks Lodge. Later that evening, members and guests gathered back at Willows Lodge for Friday Social Hour and a festive Taco Dinner.

On Saturday, our visitors enjoyed a tour of Thunderhill Raceway, taking in the high-speed thrill of motorcycle and auto racing before enjoying a no-host lunch at the track.

Saturday evening featured our formal dinner honoring Lynn and Jeff. The event was well attended by local Willows members, North District officers, and visiting AVPs from across California and Hawaii. Guests enjoyed a meal of cooked-to-order rib-eye steaks and salmon, expertly prepared by Walter Sanchez, the House Committee, and our dedicated kitchen volunteers. Special thanks to the Willows 4-H youth who served the meal with exceptional speed and courtesy; their efforts earned a generous tip toward their club's upcoming programs.

We extend a special thank you to Michelle and Kelly Knight for spending three days as our dedicated van drivers, and to Ernie and Joe for opening their home as the hospitality suite for our visiting AVPs.

Thank you to everyone who welcomed our guests, attended the festivities, or volunteered their time to make this weekend a overwhelming success. Your continued commitment to Willows Elks Lodge #1786 is truly appreciated!

Exalted Rulers Message

Brothers and Sisters-READY ELKS—LET'S GO!

Grand Exalted Ruler Tim Jaeger has challenged all lodges nationwide to recruit and initiate new members. Our by-laws allow for $1.00 application fee (Normally $50.00) for the month of October and November. I encourage our members to recruit your friends and family to join our organization.

I hope everyone is doing well. As I transition into retirement and finish closing out my previous employment, I am excited to be back and able to dedicate more time to our lodge, work on improvements, and address any concerns or ideas you may have.

Here are several important updates and upcoming events to keep on your radar:

- North District DDGER Visitation: Tuesday, November 17, 2026

Join us for the official visit of North District Deputy District Grand Exalted Ruler John Strattard. The schedule includes an audit, business meeting, dinner, lodge meeting, and initiation. Officers and Committee Chairs are required to attend the business and lodge meetings at a minimum.

- Upcoming Events & Fundraisers:

- Thursday Pub Grubs: November and December will feature Pub Grubs on the three Thursdays leading up to Thanksgiving and Christmas. Get your name on the sign-up list to show your support!
- Annual Turkey Dinner: Stay tuned for event flyers and online ticket availability.

- Improved Communication:

We are introducing new communication channels to keep everyone updated efficiently, including regular email blasts and text messages.

Our lodge thrives on your participation, donations, and volunteer work. I encourage everyone to step up and get involved—you don't need to chair a committee to make a difference, just joining one helps our lodge grow and succeed.

Looking forward to a wonderful holiday season together!

Fraternally yours,

Ernest 'Ernie' Peters

Welcome New Members

Willows Elks Lodge #1786 - Tuesday October 20, 2026

Please join us in giving a warm Elks welcome to our four newest members initiated during our second meeting in October:
John Calonico, Eugene & Cheryl Massa, Derek Chambers.
Prior to the initiation, our new members and their families enjoyed a delicious Tri-Tip Dinner prepared by House Manager Walter Sanchez and his son, Qaden. Thank you both for a wonderful meal!

Get Involved!
We strongly encourage all our new members to attend lodge events, and join a committee. Volunteering is a fantastic way to meet fellow members and support our great causes, including fundraising for the Elks National Foundation (ENF) and the CHEA Purple Pig Major Project.

Fraternally yours,

Ernest "Ernie" Peters

Fall Festival and Soccer Shoot

Willows Elks Lodge #1786 - Sunday October 11, 2026

This year, Willows Elks Lodge combined our annual Fall Festival and inaugural Soccer Shoot into one action-packed joint event at the same venue. The double feature brought heavy foot traffic throughout the day, with many local children happily participating in both activities.

Our first-ever Soccer Shoot was a complete success, drawing 34 youth participants! Every young athlete walked away with a brand-new soccer ball and an official certificate of participation. The event was made possible thanks to $445.00 in monetary donations and 34 hours of donated volunteer time. A big thank you goes out to Roy Medina, his assistants, and all the dedicated volunteers who made the shoot run seamlessly.

The Fall Festival was equally vibrant, offering families an afternoon filled with games, face painting, delicious food, and pumpkin picking. We extend a huge thank you to Mark Layman for his extraordinarily generous pumpkin donation. Thanks to his support, we raised over $1,000.00 for the CHEA Purple Pig Major Project!

As always, a special thank you goes to every volunteer who lent a hand. Without your time, energy, and dedication, our lodge simply could not operate.

Stay tuned! Full event details, including individual Soccer Shoot competition winners and final fundraising totals, will be posted in an upcoming issue.

Volunteers and Leadership Opportunities

VOLUNTEERISM-The practice of offering time, energy, and skills to help others without getting paid money. It is driven by free will, kindness, and a desire to improve the community rather than financial reward.

Volunteers are always needed at the Willows Elks Lodge. Our survival depends on each of us to participate in activities, community events, lodge events, supporting local youth, veterans and our communities. PLEASE CONSIDER VOLUNTEERING FOR A LODGE EVENT.

Willows Elks Lodge is currently seeking self motivated persons willing to volunteer their time at the lodge. This includes working in the kitchen under direction of the House Manager, serving food, setup and cleanup of special events, and fundraising for all of our special projects. This is a rewarding and adventurous assignment which benefits the lodge and our activities.

House Committee-New members always needed on a regular basis or a one time volunteer. Contact any officer, the lodge office or our House Chair, Walter Sanchez to sign up.

OFFICERS/LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES-If you or someone you know is interested in being an officer speak up and get involved. We are always looking for dedicated members to step into the chairs.

If you are interested in any of the above contact any lodge officer or the business office for inquiries. 530-934-4321

Volunteering: What It Means & How It Works

We often talk about needing volunteers for events, but we don't always do a clear job explaining what that actually looks like or how to get involved.

A steady lineup of events and the volunteers who run them are the lifeblood of our Lodge. If most of our members committed to helping for even a few hours with just two to three events each year, we would have plenty of coverage year-round.

How to Get Involved
Check the Lounge Sign-Up Sheets: Look for event sign-up sheets in the lounge. They feature the event name, date, and event chair contact details. Add your name and phone number/email, and the event chair will reach out.

Support Lodge Events: Most events are fundraisers for our Lodge or major causes like the Elks National Foundation (ENF) and the CHEA Purple Pig. While many feature sit-down dinners, events can be anything from family activities to casual socials.

Ways You Can Help
Setup (Night Before or Morning Of): Set up tables and chairs, arrange decorations, and handle quick prep tasks.
Food Prep: Slice, chop, and plate food. No prior kitchen experience required!
During the Event: Serve food, clear tables, sell raffle tickets, run quick errands, or simply stand by ready to lend a hand. Just being present is a massive help.
After the Event: Clear and wipe down tables, tear down and store seating, sweep/mop, wash dishes, package leftovers, and clean the kitchen.

Chairing an Event
Chairing means taking the lead on an event you're passionate about. Events don't always require a formal meal—festivals, light refreshment events, and casual gatherings are great options too. Key steps for event chairs include:

- Reserve the Date: Present your idea at a planning meeting or reach out to the Exalted Ruler.
- Build a Budget: Events should be profitable, and we provide simple forms to help you project costs. The House Committee and Exalted Ruler are always available to guide you.
- Gather Volunteers: Work with your own group or post a sign-up sheet in the lounge. Always follow up directly with members who sign up.
- Promote the Event:
  - Coordinate with the Public Relations Chair or Exalted Ruler to create a flyer.
  - Put notice in the newsletter 1–2 months in advance (1 month minimum).
- Tickets: Ensure tickets are printed and ready for sale as soon as the event is announced.
- Purchase Supplies: Buy necessary items, or coordinate with the House Committee for bulk food purchases.
- Lead the Team: Set the schedule for prep, setup, and event-day roles with your volunteers.

You will never have to figure this out alone. Taking that first step to reach out makes all the difference. Thank you for keeping our Lodge strong!
