

HEROES

Elks National Foundation
2007-08 Annual Report

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN:

Dear Friend:

For two weeks in August, the world was captivated by the 2008 Summer Olympics. We sat glued to our televisions as Michael Phelps set a new Olympic record for gold medals. The media immediately proclaimed him "the greatest Olympian of all time," and he became America's hero.

But he wasn't the only hero. Tiny gymnasts performed remarkable feats during their own quests for gold. Runners tested the limits of their own endurance as they tried to outpace the competition. Each medal had its own heroic story. And we heard them all.

But we didn't hear the stories of the people behind the winners. We didn't hear about the people who sacrificed time, money and personal gain to help others reach their dreams. They are the real heroes.

Often, you don't hear about the heroes behind the scenes. They don't ask for recognition. They don't mind that the crowd isn't cheering for them. They do what they do because they care. They want to help make somebody else's dreams come true. They want to make the world a better place. Elks National Foundation programs exist because of heroes like them.

Programs such as the Hoop Shoot, Drug Awareness, Scholarships and the Community Investments Program rely on these heroes. Sure, we're excited about the perfect scores during this year's Hoop Shoot finals. But we're also excited about the hundreds of volunteers who made those scores possible.

In this year's Annual Report, you'll read about one of these Hoop Shoot heroes, as well as the heroes behind our other ENF programs. It inspires me to know that the Elks organization is filled with people just like them—people who just want to make a difference somehow. And they don't need a medal to prove it.

The Foundation couldn't do what we do without your support. You make our work possible. You are our heroes. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Honorable Frank O. Garland, Chairman
Elks National Foundation Board of Trustees

DRUG AWARENESS PROGRAM HERO

Frank Burr, Illinois Elks Association Drug Awareness Chair

The dangers of drugs never go away. Kids need everyday heroes, ready for anything, to guide them.

In his fifth year as the Illinois Elks Association's Drug Awareness Chair, Frank Burr is inspired by his fellow Elks, his family and the constant needs of America's youth. He identifies many people around him as heroes, and even as state chair, stresses that he is only a part of the team.

Every Lodge can be a hero; it just takes time and effort!

"We make a difference for these kids and our community," Burr explains. "We're always active. 24/7. There's always something that needs to be done, and it can't be done by just one person."

Burr gets excited about the growth and success of the Elks Drug Awareness Program. He knows it must adapt to continue to connect with kids in a meaningful way. That's why Burr contributed a lot, for example, to the DAP's new website—it's a fresh stride to reach kids, parents and educators in the fight against drugs.

"A hero is someone kids can look up to," he says, "Anyone who takes an extra step to help out someone who's less fortunate."

Whether talking to kids at a drug-free event, building online resources or passing out superhero comic books to promote a drug-free lifestyle, Burr may not admit that he's a hero, too. But he will offer some insight: "Every Lodge can be a hero; it just takes effort and time!"

VETERANS SERVICE HERO

Lorraine Fisher, VAVS Rep

Lorraine Fisher was lucky. Her son returned unscathed from the Vietnam War. She was so grateful that she vowed to dedicate herself to helping veterans who were not as fortunate. Today, she continues to fulfill her promise. As a Veterans Administration Voluntary Service representative, Fisher spends much of her time surrounded by war veterans.

"Working with veterans is one of the most gratifying things I could have done with my life," she says. "Our country has to take care of these vets. We owe them an enormous debt."

Today, Fisher doesn't just visit veterans hospitals herself; she brings along Lodge members and friends. They visit Baldomero Lopez State Nursing Home in Land-

It's one of the most gratifying things I could have done with my life.

O-Lakes, Fla., every month to organize bingo parties with the residents. Fisher even collected $18,000 worth of stuffed animals to pass out to bingo winners!

Fisher defines a hero as someone who thinks of others first and doesn't demand attention for the work that they do. Incidentally, she seems to fit this description to a tee. When asked how she's achieved such success with her programs, she credits others.

"I've had more help from my Lodge than I ever thought possible," says Fisher. "When people say 'thank you,' I say 'thank the Elks,' because they're the ones making this happen."

Fisher may be surrounded by heroes when she volunteers, but she fits in pretty well. The gratitude of the veterans for her help proves that she is a hero to them, too!

HOOP SHOOT HERO

Steve Lucas, Pennsylvania Elks Association Hoop Shoot Director

As a young boy, Pennsylvania State Elks Association Hoop Shoot Director Steve Lucas' hero was football coach Vince Lombardi. What kid doesn't dream about making it to the pros? These days, however, Lucas realizes you don't have to be famous to be a hero.

"A hero is somebody you can look up to and respect," says Lucas. "A hero should be a role model for kids."

For years, Lucas has filled this role for kids in Pennsylvania. He's been involved in coaching and volunteering in youth sports programs for more than 30 years. Besides serving as the local, district and State Hoop Shoot Director, he also runs the local youth soccer program.

"Sometimes I think I do too much," he laughs. "But it's so neat to see the kids I coach grow into these great people. It's funny when they get so tall they come back to visit and look down on me!"

Physically, that might be true. But regardless of how tall they get, the many kids who Steve Lucas has mentored through the years will always look up to him.

A hero is somebody you can look up to and respect.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENTS PROGRAM HERO

Matthew Frankel, Impact Grant Project Manager

For Matthew Frankel, the Exalted Ruler of Bridgeport, Conn., Lodge No. 36, volunteering has always been a way of life. When he was growing up, his mother was a bit of a hero to him. And while she may not have been as strong as his favorite childhood superhero, Thor, his mom still taught him some important lessons.

His mother's constant volunteering when he was a child inspired Frankel to do the same in his life. "From a young age, I saw the great things that could be done by volunteering," says Frankel, "the joy it brings to others and the sense of accomplishment that I would get."

Now, through a Community Investments Program Impact Grant, Frankel leads his Lodge in serving a whole group of heroes by hosting monthly dinners at a transitional home for homeless veterans. "These heroes who sacrificed so much for us deserve better," believes Frankel. "Our program, though small in the grand scheme of life, makes a difference in their lives."

When talking to Frankel it's easy to see that heroes come from all walks of life. From those who courageously serve their country, to the mother teaching her child to make the world a better place, and Elks like Frankel making a difference in their communities, there are heroes all around us.

Our program, makes a difference in their lives.

STATE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM HERO

Dr. Ray Ross, Colorado Elks Association Scholarship Chair

He's not as well-known as Spider-Man or Superman, but for the past 35 years, Ray Ross has been a Super-Elk. Joining the order to support his community, veterans and young people, Ross has done just that by volunteering for many committees and holding the job of Lodge and state Scholarship Chair for more than 10 years.

After retiring from the Air Force, Ross settled in Colorado Springs. As an Educational Psychologist, Ross worked in schools throughout Colorado. "I witnessed first hand the struggles students faced with impending college decisions and financial need," says Ross. "I knew that I wanted to help." When asked by Colorado Springs, Colo., Lodge No. 309 to be their Scholarship Chair, Ross jumped at the chance to make a difference in students' lives.

I witnessed first hand the struggles students face.

Similar to Superman who flies to the aid of the needy at a moment's notice, Ross is on call for his scholarship applicants.

Ross reviews each application and meets with students to ensure they submit the best possible application. This explains why his Lodge has had Most Valuable Student national winners for the past 12 years.

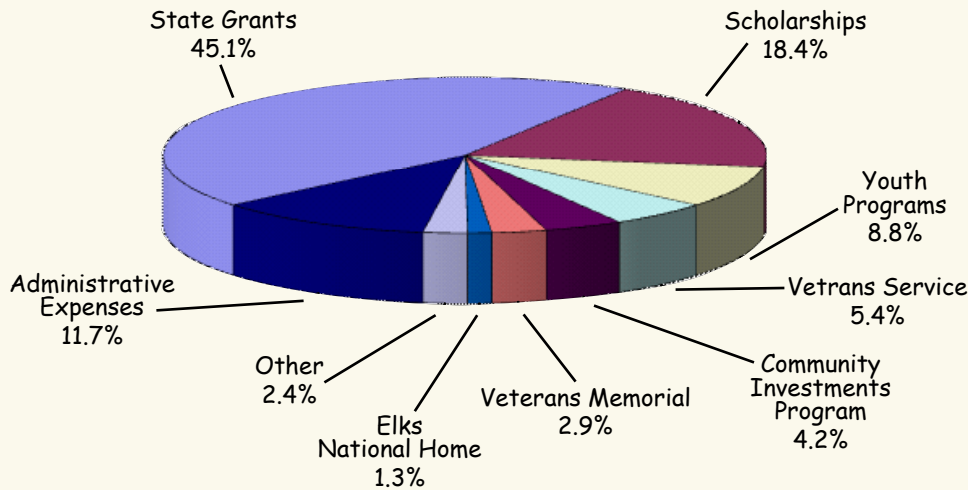

Like his personal hero, his father, who helped WWII refugees with job training and placement, Ross' love for helping others is in his blood. When asked why he volunteers, Ross simply says, "That's who I am."

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

During the 2007-08 fiscal year, the Elks National Foundation received a total of $6,465,213 in contributions and bequests. In turn, we spent $13,239,857 on our programs. Our administrative expenses were $1,747,711.

This chart illustrates where we spent our money.

Here's a look at our financial position as of March 31, 2008.

Total Assets .....	$658,240,148
Total Liabilities .....	$199,175,278
Total Net Assets .....	$459,064,870

Finally here's a look at contributions and expenses in 2007-08

2007-08
Contributions and Bequests	$6,465,213
Program Expenses
State Grants	$6,753,860
Scholarships	$2,761,211
Youth Programs	$1,312,269
Veterans Service	$802,550
Community Investments Program	$625,133
Veterans Memorial	$438,000
Elks National Home	$191,770
Other	$355,064
Administrative Expenses	$1,747,711
Total Expenses	$14,987,568

The return on your charitable investment is important to us! We gave back 45 percent of our distribution to the state associations and 4 percent to the Lodges. That's nearly 50 percent of our distributions! And we spent less than 12 percent on our administrative expenses!

Thank you so much for your support! We couldn't do what we do without you.

The financial highlights for 2007-08 were summarized from the Financial Statements of the Elks National Foundation, March 31, 2008, with Report of Independent Auditor, Diehl & Associates. Complete Financial Statements, including all notes, can be obtained by contacting the Elks National Foundation, 2750 N. Lakeview Ave, Chicago, IL 60614, phone 773/755-4728, email enf@elks.org.
