First Responders Recognition

HOULTON, USA - The Houlton Lodge of Elks #835 cordially invites all local first responders to a ham and turkey meal complete with all the fixings on Monday September 11th from 5 to 7 pm. As an organization focused on improving our local community, we extend this invitation for a complementary meal to all members of the Houlton Police Department, Aroostook County Sheriffs office, Maine State Police, local fire departments and ambulance companies in recognition of the hard, often dangerous, and important work these individuals provide our community. The meal will be prepared and served in the Lodge dining room at 86 Main st. Houlton Me.
