Message From Your Exalted Ruler

Hello Everyone,
Did you know that Dwight D. Eisenhower, a five star General and the 34th President of the United States, had a putting green installed on the white house lawn, and he banned Squirrels from the grounds because they ruined his golf green? OK, no I am not going to request a putting green at the Lodge; I like watching the squirrels.

We need to start working on our membership drives again and I am going to be asking all of you for some help. We have had a drop in initiations the last few months and we need to get back to rounding up some great friends to become Elks.

I am sure that all of you know someone who would be a great addition to our Lodge so lets invite them to come on down to a meal or an event we have and show them a great time.

WDM Elks 3rd Annual 9/11
First Responder Appreciation Event
Friday September 11th , 2026

Our Police Officers, Fire Fighters, EMT's and Paramedic's appreciation event was a big success as we had well over 100 first Responders in attendance. We served them grilled hamburgers, grilled Beer Brats, baked beans, potato salad, and water and pop beverages. Everyone enjoyed their food and thanked us (for their much-earned recognition).

A big thank you goes out to Tim Pettit (past Trustee) and Rich Kreitzinger ER, for their organization and countless hours of preparation, set up and take down which included: contacting all of the police and Fire Stations in person and sending out emails and flyers.

We couldn't have pulled this off without our fantastic Lodge volunteers. You guys are terrific.

A special thank you goes out to Merideth Fiori (daughter of Roger and Karla Fiori) who had all her dance students, from the Black Pearl Dance Academy in Grimes, write Thank You notes to all of the first responders.

Another Big thank you goes out to all of our lodge volunteers who participated to make this 25th anniversary of 9/11 a special day of remembrance.

Thank You

BLACK PEARL™
DANCE ACADEMY

Thank you to the young ladies of Black Pearl Dance Academy for showing our first responders that their service, sacrifice, and courage are truly appreciated.

We are serving 8:AM to noon which includes: Biscuits and Gravy, French Toast, Scrambled eggs, Bacon, Sausage patties, Cheesy Potatoes, and of course all you can eat Pancakes (including Blueberry and Chocolate chip pancakes), Orange juice, Milk, and Coffee. Enjoy a Bloody Mary or Mimosa for only $3.50. Breakfast is only $11 for adults and $5 for children 10 and under. All proceeds support our Hoop Shoot Program and other youth activities.

Our volunteers in September were: Doug Laird, Dallas Morris, Neil Davies, Forrest Laidlaw, Brian Becker, Gloria Reisberg, Rosie Surber, Alice Jensen, Michael Schieffer, Beth DuPuy, Ted DuPuy, Nina Steele, MJ (Bartender), and Larry Cramer.

A big thank you goes to Nina Steele for taking our left-over food down to the Bethel Mission to help feed the homeless. Mark Bergmann is also special as he has been taking out and bringing in our breakfast signs for over 6 years. Much appreciated Mark, you are the man!

Our Bake Sale brought in $335 from free will donations which will be given to our Veteran's Children's Christmas Giving project. Our Bake sale volunteers were: Jean Shade, Jen Becker, Nancy Newcomb and Gloria Criswell and our many lodge volunteers who provide the delicious pastries, pies and cookies.

See you at our next Sunday Breakfast and Bake Sale, October 11th . Bring your friends and neighbors. Again, thanks to all of our volunteers. Please pay the bartender for your breakfast.

Bourbon Night is held on the 3rd Thursday of each month.

GUEST PRESENTATION from TEMPLETON DISTILLERY!

Come explore the bourbon and the stories from Iowa's Heartland. The current owners and descendants of the founders express their whiskey is produced THE SMALL TOWN WAY. The committee is leaving it up to our guests to decide which of the many products we will taste. It will be a fun night!
We will also pick a cocktail from their recipes for our end-of-night cocktail option.

So grab your friends and come to Elks Lodge on October 15th . You don't want to miss it!

It all started with a few families and a taste for rye.

Templeton, Iowa was founded in 1882 by German immigrants who brought with them something more valuable than just strong hands and farming know-how. They brought tradition. Back in the old country, rye whiskey was the drink of choice. So when the crops took root in Iowa's soil, so did the custom of distilling rye.

Not for profit — at least not yet — but for community, celebration and the simple fact that whiskey was what they knew and what they loved. (Continued on next page)

When Times Got Tough, We got Creative

Back in the Prohibition days, when times got tough our town didn't just sit around waiting for a miracle — we made our own. In pig sheds and silos, behind barns and under floorboards, we crafted whiskey the only we knew how: together.

It was a town-wide effort.

The sheriff, the farmer next door, and even the local priest was in on the operation. A shared purpose to keep the whiskey flowing, and by extension, keep the spirit of our town going strong.

As Prohibition dragged on, we the farmers and homesteaders turned smugglers and bootleggers of Templeton made sure our rye traveled beyond the confines of Iowa. It didn't take long till it was renowned in speakeasies all across America.

Even the priest was in on it

Father Huesmann, local clergyman, didn't care much for Prohibition. So he lent a hand to the town's whiskey making operations when he could.

A secret sign

If Babe the white horse was out front, it meant the whiskey was ready. Today, we've got a statue outside our distillery in his honor.

Meet Joseph Irlbeck III

A local legend and one of Templeton's top dog distillers. Known for making 100 gallons of whiskey a day and avoiding capture by the feds till 1827.

TEMPLETON RYE
The Good Stuff

We took it legit–still true to our roots.

At the turn of the millennium, Templeton Rye returned to the world — legally this time — with the launch of "The Good Stuff," a modern rye whiskey inspired by the town's Prohibition-era recipe.

Still small. Still Strong.

MARSHALLTOWN'S UPCOMING ANNUAL VETERANS HOME FALL DINNER 2026
October 17th, 2026

Our lodge continues to be supportive of the Iowa State Elks Association Dinner at the Marshalltown Veterans Home which will be held Saturday October 17th, 2026. We will meet at the lodge at 8:00 A.M. and then carpool up to the Veterans home. We will participate in bringing wheelchair patients down from their rooms, carry trays, help serve food and then take them back to their room.

In addition to providing and serving the Veterans the dinner, Elks Lodges will donate coffee, popcorn, playing cards, snack food, candy, crossword puzzles, books, magazines, clothing and many personal items that Veterans need.

Everyone has a good time and the Veterans enjoy the companionship.
