OUR Lodge Reports of Committees

A Report from our Lodge Secretary – Alan Armstrong

Thanks to all of those that were able to help serve the meal to the wrestlers at their banquet on Monday night, the 27th. We had a great time hearing about their accomplishments for this past year. What a great way to help out as Elks.

Dues notices are in the mail or have been received by now. Please remember, dues are due by April 1st. Timely attention to this will help the Lodge keep the budget in control.

Scholarship applications are available for the Local Lodge Scholarship and also the Jim Whitehill Memorial Scholarship.

For more info, please contact Alan Armstrong at 712-246-8371 or by email at aarm2621@msn.com.

A Report from our Lodge Lecturing Knight – Lance Cornelius

Deer hides were pick up on 2-20. Volunteers from the lodge that helped this year were Dennis Gates, Marv Feller, and Myself. Other volunteers from the community that helped process the hides when there were not additional volunteers was Anthony Dinges, Noel Gandy (helped three different times), and Zac Ripperger.

A Report from our Lodge Chaplain – Robert Iske

Our close relationship with the Community Food Pantry is a shining example of our Cardinal principle of Charity. The service that this organization supplies to our community is a true Blessing, to those that are less fortunate. During the 2016 year, they were able to serve 1,449 referrals (a referral is a family unit). This included 2,660 adults/1,610 children for a total of 4,270 individuals. They ended the year up 3% in children served and up 8% in food purchased.
