Large "easy to see" wall clocks
Large easy to read wall calendars
Decorative message boards (for outside of resident's rooms)
A large outdoor hammock for the porch area.

Book shelves for the households.
Reading lamps
iPod Touch for playing music
iTunes gift cards for households to use with iPod Touch.
Bluetooth speakers for household areas
Large, touchscreen tablets
Various higher end snacks for the mini-mart (we've looked at things in the past like packs of Krispy Kreme donuts etc.)
Soda for mini-mart (we do have limited storage so with mini-mart items we don't need too much but something outside of the ordinary)
Vacuums
12"-18" wall hanging crucifix for our chapel

For Vets Lane/Old Glory
10 electric razors
5 personal hair/beard trimmers
DVD's (Western's, Old time musicals)
2 air fryers
2 new DVD/blue ray players
2 tablets(inexpensive) with keyboards and mouse—for computer games
10 decks of cards—large print if possible

We also need wireless headphones to go with the smart TVs so that residents who can't hear well are able to place the headphones on and enjoy the same lifestyle as everyone else in the household. We have tested this is one household and it has definitely increased the amount of "community" gatherings inside the household.

Cash donations- Ultimately every donation we receive whether cash or in kind is one more dollar we can use to enhance the lives of our residents and their families.

Please, no books.

Due to health regulations we are also not allowed to accept any used clothing or clothing without tags.
