REQUIREMENTS AND INFORMATION FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Any student in the June graduating class who is a citizen of the United States, is of good character, shows an appreciation of the value of an education and who is willing to struggle to achieve success has a chance to win an award.

All of these scholarships will be awarded based primarily on academic achievement, extracurricular activities, work history, community service, honors and awards, leadership experiences, and a written essay. Additional consideration will be given to students who have a parent/grandparent who is a member in good standing of Haverstraw Elks Lodge 877.

The Elk's scholarships are payable upon proof of enrollment in an accredited College or University. The "William Keyser" scholarship $1,000 winner will be able to renew their award of $1,000 for the remaining three years of schooling when proper proof is submitted to the Lodge. The "George Wright" scholarship has a value of $1,000 and the Gregory "Rif" Sokolohorsky scholarship also has a value of $1,000.

Also, a "Teddy Giroux" scholarship of $1,000 will be awarded to a student in the fields of Visual, Musical, or Performing Arts.

In addition, the Lodge will offer 8 additional scholarships of $1,000 each. Two of these scholarships will be influenced by a student's participation in a Junior ROTC program or has taken relevant courses and who has indicated a desire to pursue a job in the trades industry.
