Volume 133 March 2020 No. 3

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

This is my last Antler Alert letter for my term in office as your Exalted Ruler. It has been an honor for Nancy and me to represent the members of Nampa Lodge for the last couple of years. I hope we have served you well. As our travels have taken us many places, we have become friends with Elk members throughout the United States and reunited with many of our Idaho members. Let us all continue to unite, keep up our hard work in membership drives, and "giving back" to the lodge in upcoming years.

We won't be far away, and you will continue to see us around the lodge. Everyone in our membership has made us proud to be Elks members.

Remember Old Timers night is March 3rd. So please come to honor our members who have 20-plus years in the lodge and enjoy a nice meal. We will follow that with our annual Pork Feed on March 6th, so put that down on your calendars. Don't miss out on the auction items that will be given out that night.

Our installation night for new officers for the 2020-2021 Elk year will be Saturday, March 28th.

Again, Nancy and I thank each and every one of you for this past year.

Fraternally,
Steve McNearney, ER

OINK! OINK! OINK! Friday March 6th!

Food! Drink! Socializing!

Mark your calendar and get ready to "Pig Out!!" at the 41st Annual Elk of the Year Pork Feed! Tickets are $15 a person.

There's a really nice compact Traeger Tailgater Bronze Grill to give away and you could be the winner! Get your tickets at the bar. We look forward to seeing you all there!

Terry Dillehay, EOY 2019-2020

Secretary Carol Westphal is retiring on April 1st

It is imperative to find a qualified person for training before Carol leaves. The secretary position is open to men and women members. Computer skills, knowledge of office procedures and familiarity with Elks policies are a requirement. Carol has also done our bookkeeping and we need someone with a financial background to fill this position. Being a member is not required for bookkeeper. These are two separate positions, and are paid positions. If you, or anyone you know, are interested, contact ER Steve McNearney, Trustees Chairman Ed Willson, or Lodge Secretary Carol Westphal.

Dues letters are in the mail. This is a good time to update your address and telephone numbers.

The Antler Alert is sent bulk rate (17-cents a copy). Bulk-rate mail is not forwarded. It costs 55-cents when returned, plus another 55-cents to send it back to you regular mail. That adds up to $1.10 cost to your lodge.

UPDATE your telephone numbers. When making robo-calls for events, many numbers are invalid.

It costs 9-cents per landline call and only 4-cents via text. We will make a list of cell phone numbers for the robo-text, and a list for landline calls.

Please do not block the lodge number 208-466-1389
