

II Recommended Reading

- The History of the Order of Elks — 1868-1988
available from the office of Grand Secretary under Code 511300
The entertaining and informative chapters of this book are guaranteed to provide you with either hours of leisure reading or the answer to any one of a thousand questions about the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the U.S.A.
- The Story of Elkdom
available from The Elks Magazine under Code 511800
This spectacularly illustrated photographic tour of the Elks National Veterans Memorial and Headquarters in Chicago, Illinois brings you the magnificent and unique art and architecture that symbolizes our Order's compassion and Patriotism, while also providing background information on our achievements.
- Proceedings of Latest Grand Lodge Annual Session
sent to and on file in every Lodge — Code 511400 from Grand Secretary
The reports of the Grand Exalted Ruler plus all of the Grand Lodge Committees and Agencies to the representatives of thousands of Lodges gathered in this yearly convention tell of the vast spectrum of Elk benevolences being performed in the communities of America, accompanied by the words of gratitude from national government officials who recognize our Order's outstanding contributions to the betterment of our youth and fellow citizens.
- Latest Grand Lodge Program Booklet
sent to and on file in every Lodge.
Learn of the many programs and contests available to your Lodge from the national offices, under the leadership of the Grand Exalted Ruler, and operated in conjunction with assisting Grand Lodge Committees, state and district committees and advisors.
- Latest Annotated Statutes
sent to and on file in every Lodge — Code 520100 from Grand Secretary Current and complete Laws of the Order accompanied by Opinions and Decisions of the Grand Forum and the Grand Lodge Committee on Judiciary — details the rights and responsibilities of every Elk or group within the framework of the Order as approved by the representatives of all Lodges.
- Various Committee Manuals and Materials supplied by Grand Lodge to all Lodges — consult your Secretary Clear and comprehensive guidelines for the successful operation of every activity required in our Lodges to facilitate community involvement and family participation which will build the image and reality of any Lodge seeking growth in the principles and programs of the Order.