

Elks National Veterans Service Commission

FREEDOM GRANTS

The Elks have a long and impressive history of serving veterans. To continue that tradition, in 2020-21, the Elks National Veterans Service Commission will award $2,500 Freedom Grants to 325 Lodges that hold projects that meet the needs of veterans and/or military members and their families!

HOW TO APPLY:

Grants will be awarded on a rolling basis to 325 Lodges that submit qualifying projects. Applications must be detailed, complete and follow all grant guidelines. Expect follow-up for applications that do not provide enough information.

WHAT QUALIFIES:

Freedom Grants should be used for direct service to veterans and/or military members and their families. Grant projects must serve a population in need. Projects must focus on one of these five areas: employment, homelessness and housing, military families, health, and educational support.

Qualifying applications will describe in detail:

- How many Elks will be involved and what they will do
- How the project addresses the needs of veterans and/or military members
- How the Lodge will budget the grant, including three or more expense categories

Restrictions: Meaningful involvement is required. Grants may not be used for appreciations dinners, fundraisers or general community events. Grants may not be used for donations of funds.

Here are some examples of past projects.

- Saratoga-Wilton, NY, Lodge No.161 provides winter coats, boots and other cold weather supplies at a Stand Down for veterans experiencing homelessness.
- Edison Park, NJ, Lodge No. 1488 hosts barbecues for veterans at the Menlo Park Veterans Memorial Home and the Lyons VA Hospital.
- Ohio River Valley, OH, Lodge No. 231 provides haircuts, pajamas, and slippers for veterans living in nursing homes.
- Temple, TX, Lodge No. 138 hosts a baby shower for active duty military parents, an empowerment celebration for active duty military women, and a Veteran's Day meal for hospitalized veterans.

Application Questions:

- Describe your Lodge's Freedom Grant project. How is your Lodge serving veterans or active duty military personnel with this grant?
- Explain how this project will improve the lives of the individuals you are serving. Which of the five areas of increased need is this grant project addressing? Which of the five areas of increased need is this grant project addressing?
- How will Elks be meaningfully involved in this project? How many Lodge members will participate and what will they do?
- What does the Lodge expect to accomplish with this project?
A budget is also required. No more than 10% (or $250) of the budget can be dedicated to administrative or publicity expenses, including t-shirts. Budget cannot include cash prizes.

IMPORTANT DATES

- Applications are available online starting April 1, 2020.
- Projects must be complete by March 31, 2021.
