All resolutions pass in Legislative Session

By Tiffany Bakker

Convention News Reporter

On the second day of the Grand Lodge Session, in a rare voting outcome, delegates passed all 11 resolutions to amend the statutes of the Order during the Legislative Session.

Delegates also heard from several Grand Lodge committees and commissions concerning their activities over the previous year and their plans for the future and congratulated the All-American Lodge winners and the finalists of the Ritualistic Contest.

Of note is the passing of a resolution to establish and codify a new Elks National Drug Awareness Commission, to better support and promote the Order's programs designed to increase drug awareness and address the dangers surrounding substance abuse. Another noteworthy resolution that overwhelmingly passed provides the GER with the ability to protect Lodge Members, guests, and property when a Member acts in a threatening or otherwise egregious manner.

Other resolutions that were passed included resolutions to add the Secretary and Treasurer to the Board of Directors of incorporated Local Lodges, eliminate the age requirements to obtain life membership status, and grant the GER or District Deputy the authority to allow electronic meetings to protect Members with health concerns. Other resolutions adjusted various statutory requirements to take new electronic tools into account and allow for electronic meetings in some circumstances.

Prior to the legislative session, Grand Trustee Chairman Randy Shook, in his final report, indicated that the 2022-2023 dues would be fixed at $29.00—$6.50 for the Grand Lodge, $17.00 for the insurance assessment, and $5.50 for The Elks Magazine.

While the results of the voting were being tabulated, Grand Secretary Bryan Klatt gave an update on the Disaster Relief Fund, which provided $135,000 in support for disasters, including floods and fires, in six states. He encouraged continued Lodge donations to replenish funds for future relief efforts.

Government Relations Committee Chairman Anthony Markarian reported that the total national giving by the Order in time, money, and in-kind donations had increased significantly since the 2020-2021 fiscal year. The final total was $368,368,264.17—exceeding the previous year by nearly $125 million.

Next up was Wayne Cotterly, chairman of the Activities Committee, who announced the results of the Community Project Contest, of which the first place winners were Oakland Park, FL Lodge No. 2407 (Division 1), Roxboro, NC Lodge No. 2005 (Division 2), Goldsboro, NC Lodge No. 139 (Division 3), Putnam, CT Lodge No. 574 (Division 4), Houlton, ME Lodge No. 835 (Division 5), and Middletown, CT Lodge No. 771 (Division 6). He noted that the Soccer Shoot had conducted its third virtual national championship and congratulated the five boys and five girls who were national champions in their respective age-groups. He also presented the Marvin M. Lewis Elks in Scouting awards to Anthony Buccigrossi, of East Brunswick, NJ Lodge No. 2370; Kelly Pillsbury of Waterville, ME Lodge No. 905; Timothy Kelley of Brawley, CA Lodge No. 1420; and Dana Ernst of Kearney, NE Lodge No. 984.

Fraternal Committee Chairman Robert Hinkle congratulated the winners of the Americanism Essay Contest. The winner of Division I was Addison Smith, who was sponsored by Marshall, TX Lodge No. 683. The winner of Division II was Yiorgos Kozak, who was sponsored by Asbury Park-Wall, NJ Lodge No. 128. He announced that the 2022-2023 contest theme will be "What Is Your American Dream?" He also noted two significant changes to the 2022-2023 contest to expand and encourage participation. The contest will be expanded from the previous two divisions to four divisions—one each for fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grades. The contest will also award monetary prizes to the top three winners in each division. Next, he congratulated the 18 winners, including six first-place winners, of the All-American Lodge contest, marking the first year that the All-American winners were announced on the floor of a Grand Lodge session.

GER-Elect Bruce A. Hidley spoke about his program for the coming year. He encouraged the attending Exalted Rulers to be active in engaging in many national programs. He also encouraged all Lodges to focus on membership and growth in the form of recruitment, reinstatements, and frequent initiations. GER Hidley then announced that card-signing donations collected during the Grand Lodge Convention, as well as throughout his travels as Grand Exalted Ruler, will be marked for the Elks Veterans Memorial Restoration Trust. Finally, he reminded the leaders of Local Lodges to record, report, and publicize their Lodges' good works and deeds and to use the many Elks National Foundation grants for which their Lodges were eligible.

Ritualistic Committee chairman Kenneth Rice closed the session by recognizing the winners of the national Ritualistic Contest, including outstanding officers from the preliminary rounds and the top four winners of the national finals. In addition, the four finalists and the winner of the Eleven O'Clock Toast Contest and the four finalists and the winner of the new Flag Charge Contest were recognized. ★
