JOY TOAST

Rollin Kent Jordan

Joy Devours Darkness.
- Jeff Tweedy

Whether on the golf course,
at the card table,
reupholstering a chair,
or behind an LYD/sour,
Brother Rollin Devoured Darkness.

Brother Rollin is traveling safely and peacefully home.

Mourning falls on the shoulders of all of us mortals.

Join me in raising a glass of Joy, in Rollin's name.

Here's to darkness devoured.

Peace and Grace to all.

Rollin was a true renaissance man that was loved by everyone. If you didn't know him, you were simply a friend that he hadn't met yet. He was born in Cambridge, Iowa on August 8, 1937, and lived just outside of town on a small farm with his parents, Harvey and Audrey (Severson) Jordan along with his sister Twila and brother Phillip.

As a jack-of-all-trades, Rollin started working right after graduating from Huxley High School with the Iowa Department of Transportation but spent most of his career at Iowa State University in the residence halls maintenance department.

Rest In Heavenly Peace, Rollin . Peace & Joy, All.

HAPPY VALENTINES DAY . BE A VALENTINE . LOVE .

The HAPPY Page COMMUNITY FRIENDSHIP CHARITY SHARING CARING

During the Holiday season we heard, "Holiday spirit should be present all year around". We agree. And now that we have made it to Valentines February, we suggest adding LOVE and proclaim, "Holiday spirit and LOVE should be present all year around". Below, please find a few Random Notes meant solely to enhance the experience. ps. For those members that view Elk's Policy as entertainment, no worries, we'll return to business, soon.

For now, "All You Need Is Love" (McCartney/Lennon). Peace, jkR
