THE ELKHORN

Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks
A FRATERNAL ORGANIZATION

Celebrating our DDGER, Ken Powalisz and 1st lady, Rebecca

The District Deputy visitation and steak dinner was a resounding success, filled with great fellowship and inspiration. We were honored to host our DD, who delivered an uplifting message centered on this year's motivating motto: "Ready Elks? Let's Go!"

An event this wonderful wouldn't be possible without our incredible volunteers. A huge thank you goes out to Bonnie Corbin, Susie Bruun and Lea Guiltinan for transforming the room. We appreciate John and Brock for perfectly grilling the steaks, and Cheryl Bruun for preparing the delicious meal and special dessert.

Our heartfelt thanks also go to Katherine Bruun, Tori Corbin, and Eric Ash for their excellent service, as well as John Corbin, Bill Vance, and Renee Southwell for the vital setup and behind-the-scenes support.

Most importantly, thank you to all the members and guests who attended and shared in this special evening. Your presence and support are what truly make our lodge a community!

Ray's dedication to our lodge is visible in everything he does. He has personally recruited numerous new members and spearheaded our Thursday Game Night as well as the new game room… putting in countless hours of volunteerism to get these going and keep them growing. Whether he is helping out in the kitchen, welcoming people at the door on Friday nights, or supporting nearly every activity on our calendar, Ray's hard work keeps our lodge thriving. Thank you, Ray, for your outstanding service and leadership!

Americanism in Action: Sponsoring the Next Generation of Patriots

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks has always stood as a beacon of patriotism, service, and devotion to our country. As Elks, one of our most solemn and rewarding duties is to instill these values in the hearts of our youth. Each autumn, as the school year gets into full swing, our lodge has the incredible privilege of fostering that civic pride through the Grand Lodge Americanism Essay Contest.
This year, the Grand Lodge Fraternal Committee has selected a deeply meaningful theme that challenges young minds to reflect on the core of our nation's heritage: "Explain a Constitutional Right or Privilege and How It Affects You and Your Family."

Why This Matters to Our Lodge
In a fast-paced world, it is more important than ever to encourage our children to pause and think critically about the liberties we often take for granted. This contest gives local 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th-grade students a platform to express their unique perspectives on citizenship, freedom, and family. Reading their entries is always a profoundly moving experience, revealing a depth of gratitude and wisdom that should make us all proud of the next generation.

Contest Details & Rules At-a-Glance
We need the help of every member to spread the word to local schools, teachers, youth groups, children, and grandchildren! Here are the core rules for submissions:
Eligibility: Open to all students in four separate divisions: Division I (5th grade), Division II (6th grade), Division III (7th grade), and Division IV (8th grade).
Length & Format: Essays must not exceed 300 words. They can be typed or legibly printed in ink and must be the original work of the student.
Submission Info: Every entry must include a standard cover page identifying the student's name, grade, school, and our sponsoring Elks Lodge information.
Deadline: All essays must be submitted to our lodge on or before December 15, 2026.

Prizes and Recognition
The contest starts right here at the local lodge level, where our Americanism Committee will select the top essays from each division. Local winners will receive lodge recognition and advance to the District and State levels.
National winners will be announced at the Grand Lodge Session in July 2027, with plaques and substantial monetary rewards distributed for each grade level:
1st Place: $1,000
2nd Place: $500
3rd Place: $250

How You Can Help
Americanism isn't just a committee—it's a collective lodge effort. You can support this vital program by:
Reaching out to local educators, principal offices, or homeschool networks to share the contest guidelines.
Encouraging the young writers in your own family to participate.
Volunteering to assist our Americanism Chair (see Cheryl Fleming) in reading and judging the entries when submissions close in December.
Let's step up, work together, and show our community that when it comes to celebrating American values, our lodge is always ready. For application packets or questions, please contact our Americanism Committee Chair or visit the official Elks Americanism Programs Page on Elks.org

Bingo Charity Funds used to Support Post 416 for Local Veterans

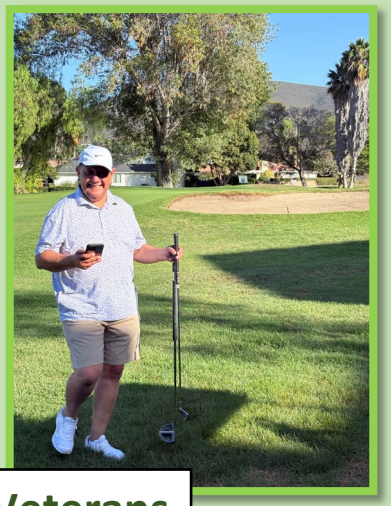

Our lodge is proud to announce that we recently put some of our Bingo charity funds to work for a fantastic cause right here in our community. We proudly sponsored the annual golf tournament hosted by American Legion Post 416. This sponsorship directly furthers our core mission: ensuring our local veterans and neighbors receive the support, camaraderie, and resources they deserve.
To show our full support, our lodge also fielded an exceptional foursome to compete in the tournament. A big shoutout to Doug Sutor, Ray Herrera, Tony Avila, and David Cooper for representing us out on the green!

A Partnership for Our Veterans

When Elks and Legionnaires team up, the entire community wins. The American Legion Post 416 does incredible work supporting local veterans, providing essential assistance programs, and hosting community-building events. By supporting their efforts, our lodge helps ensure that Post 416 can continue its vital advocacy and support systems for those who served.
We extend our sincere thanks to Post Commander David Quessenberry, Auxillary Goddess Kimberly St John and everyone at Post 416 for hosting such a wonderful event and inviting us to be a part of it…as well as to our own members who hit the links to show that Elks are always ready to support our fellow veterans.

The Ghostly Origins of the 11 O'Clock Toast

Every Elk knows or has heard the solemn, beautiful words of the Eleven O'Clock Toast. When the clock strikes, we pause to remember our absent members. Have you ever wondered why eleven o'clock? The answer stretches back to a 19th-century British theater law, a curfew, and a tight-knit group of actors who wanted to keep the memory of their friends alive.

The "Jolly Corks" and the Theater Curfew

Before we were the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, our founders in 1867 were a group of actors, musicians, and entertainers in New York City who called themselves the "Jolly Corks." Many of them were expatriates from England, and they brought their homeland's theatrical traditions with them.

In London at the time, municipal laws required all theaters and pubs to close their doors strictly at 11:00 PM. When the heavy theater curtains fell, actors, stagehands, and audience members would immediately gather at local taverns for a quick, final drink together before being sent out into the night. It became the definitive hour of fellowship.

A Toast Born on Halloween Night

The tradition took a poignant turn on Halloween night in 1867. Charles Algernon Sidney Vivian, the charismatic leader of the Jolly Corks, was sitting in a New York tavern with his friends. As the clock struck 11:00 PM, Vivian looked around the room, raised his glass, and improvised a toast to the friends who couldn't be there—specifically remembering an actor colleague who had recently passed away far from home.

When the Jolly Corks officially transformed into the B.P.O.E. in 1868, they brought this nightly habit with them. They formalized the 11:00 PM hour into our official statute, ensuring that no matter where an Elk travels, they are always connected to the lodge at that exact moment.

October Trivia: Did You Know?

- The Midnight Exception: Because our founders were late-night theater workers, the original meetings didn't even start until Sunday sequential midnights. The 11:00 PM toast was actually an 11:00 AM toast for their morning gatherings!
- The Clock Face: The lodge clock is permanently set to 11:00 as a visual reminder that an Elk is never forgotten, bridging the gap between the living and the "absent brothers."

The Living Legacy

So, the next time you hear the chimes at the lodge this October, remember Charles Vivian and his group of friends gathering on a chilly autumn night almost 160 years ago. What started as a simple, late-night theatrical curfew habit evolved into the heartbeat of our fraternity.

To our absent members—viva vox—may they live in our hearts forever.
