

Who Are the ELKS?

Elks are community.

No matter where you go in the country, an Elks Lodge is right around the corner. With more than 850,000 members and 1,900 Lodges nationwide, Elks are providing charitable services that help build stronger communities.

Elks Lodges bring so much more to their communities than just a building, golf course or pool. They are places where neighbors come together, families share meals, and children grow up.

Elks invest in their communities through programs that help children grow up healthy and drug-free, by undertaking projects that address unmet need, and by honoring the service and sacrifice of our veterans.

The Steele Children's Research Center and Arizona ELKS Youth Camp

The Arizona Elks adopted the Steele Center in 1992 as a "major project". Members in lodges around the state have contributed more than $4 million. On the sixth floor of the Steele Center research tower, three laboratories were underwritten by the Arizona Elks, and a charter wall lists the specific lodges and individuals who participated in that effort.

The mission of the ENF is to help Elks build stronger communities. We fulfill this pledge by investing in communities where Elks live and work. We provide tomorrow's leaders, our youth, with lifelong skills; honor the Elks' pledge to never forget our veterans; help the state Elks associations accomplish their charitable objectives; and fund projects that improve the quality of life in local Elks communities.

The Elks are committed to their mission, "So long as there are veterans, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will never forget them." The Veterans Service Commission takes that pledge one step further, and promises service to our nation's veterans and military members, with a special focus on service to those in need. As the needs of today's veterans changed, so have the Elks' programs. Today, the Elks National Veterans Service Commission has many exciting programs and partnerships catering to veterans and military members and their families.
