Exalted Ruler's Corner

Fellow Elks,

I would personally like to thank everyone for a successful Easter egg hunt and Easter breakfast. It takes a lot of coordination and effort from many people to make these events happen.

I would like to encourage all Elks to step forward and help support any and all lodge activities. Remember with participation "Anything" is possible.

Fraternally and Sincerely,
Mike Miller
Exalted Ruler

First Lady Corner

What do you get when a lady who likes to cook and a lady likes to dance get together? The answer is, a fun time at the lodge! So I hope you will all join us on May 18th for the Spring Swing, an evening of good food and music. Mike and I have teamed up with Bob and Sue Apa in hosting a swing music dance and dinner and I hope you will all join us. Please see the Spring Swing article for more information. This is just an example of the great things we can accomplish as lodge members when we combine our talents and interests. Hope to see you all at the Spring Swing!

Sincerely, Kim Miller First Lady

STEPPING UP

As you all know we have had many events through the years held at our lodge, both ELKS and non ELKS events. All of this takes a lot of planning and coordination. Through my short time being an ELK member I have consistently seen one person there to set up for these events. You can find him setting up for the Elkettes, and regular lodge meetings along with most all outside events that use our facility. I personally would like to thank Gary Brekke for his dedicated service and volunteerism for the Boise Elks Lodge all of these years.

Fraternally,
Michael Miller
Exalted Ruler

Members are needed

The Membership Chairperson needs committee members with various skills. Sales: Working recruitment tables, working reinstatements, and greeting guests and inviting them to join. Public Relations/ Marketing: Promoting membership on social media and the Lodge web site. Making sure everyone is aware of the positive impact the Lodge has made on the community. When Elkdom shines, Elkdom grows! Orientation: Educating, involving, and inspiring the new Members to recruit and keep active. Matching their interests and time with a Lodge committee or activity. Collection Department: Assisting the Lodge Secretary with billing, collection letters, phone calls, e-mails and personal visits to delinquents. Remaining patient and staying persistent. Want to pitch in just let one of the Lodge officers know.
