Exalted Ruler Message

Greetings Elks,

I hope everyone is preparing for the end of summer. As we begin move into fall, I look forward to seeing more of your faces at the upcoming meetings. We are in need of new and fun ideas, along with personnel willing to cook exciting meals. I ask that anyone with an issue feel free to contact me directly whether email or phone, I will leave both below. Lastly, my one question to everyone this month is why did you become an Elk, what was/is your drive? Our Elks received kudos from the DD today for not only our lodge room but the team work demonstrated during our inspection. Thank you to everyone for their hard work.

Thank you and see you at the next meeting.

Respectfully,
John Roe, Exalted Ruler

Legion Riders Dave Apgar, Robert Scaler & Vicki Barnes present a certificate of appreciation to the Lodge for our Veterans activities.

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

- 1 Exalted Ruler Message
- 2 Elks Foundation
- 3 Events Calendar

Welcome new members
Robert Moya & Curtis Self

Elks National Foundation

Our current Lodge Per Capita is $5.60 per member. Thank you to all who donated.

Pictures of our Club SOAR event that was held on Sept. 21st will not be included until our November bulletin. But you can see them now by going to the Junction City Elks Lodge 1037 Facebook page.

The MVS (Most Valuable Student) Scholarships are now available on line. Deadline to submit the application is Nov. 5, 2019 at 11:59 pm. Local judging will take place in Dec and state judging will be held in Feb. The scholarship application is open to all High School Seniors.

Our bulletin can also be found online at WWW.elks.org, input Junction City's zip code (66441) in the Lodge Locator field, select Junction City and then click on news.

House Committee Report

As fall is upon us, there is change to come. As in any change not everyone is happy. Sometimes the change is for better and faster and more efficient ways to make our club better.

I want to commend the bartenders for the transition of changes and the work you do.

Our thanks to Rosie and Roy for their food donations, Jenny's meatloaf dinners and Brenda & Charles for the Ham and beans, and their never ending volunteering to help with what ever we need.

Any volunteers for dinners or help are always appreciated. Lets try to be a team and make our club one that we are proud of and enjoy.

If you have ideas for any change as a member your voice is welcome.

Yours Truly,
Alanna LaBarge
House Committee Chairman &
Bar Manager

Secretary's Corner

In an effort to keep our records current I want to encourage all our members to send me any updates to their phone numbers, email, or mailing address. There were several email addresses that came back as undeliverable. These members will now receive their bulletin by mail.

You can keep up with our events by checking out the Junction City Elks Lodge 1037 Facebook page. Only a few of the delinquent members have sent in their dues. We will soon begin calling our delinquent members to see why you no longer wish to pay your dues. If there are problems and you no longer want to continue your membership please let us know.

Fraternally,
Brenda King, Secretary
