NEW BERN ELK

THE BENEVOLENT & PROTECTIVE ORDER OF ELKS, LODGE NO. 764

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

Brother and Sister ELKs,

I'm excited, excited, excited, spring has sprung, clocks changed, it's a new ELKs year and the Lodge is ready to go. 2020 is behind us so let us make 2021 the best year ever.

Things to do: We are a little behind financially, but we can make up the loss once we start to have events and the bar sales pick up.

Lodge improvements are in the works. The House Committee is reviewing the budget and are looking for ways to change the lighting, ceiling tiles and reupholstering the chairs in the ballroom. The parking lot driveway will be repaired once we get a good estimate for the job.

Last year we lost a total of 16 rentals, this year with the support of the rental committee, we plan on increasing that number thus the improvements to the ballroom are needed and will be paid for.

By-law updates are due this year and are in the works along with the budget.

The membership and investigating committees have been busy, we initiated eight new members and we received 5 transfers from other lodges. We have three applications for membership in the works so if anyone has any applications or know of any potential candidates please turn them in as fast as you can so we can have another outstanding initiation.

I would like to hear from any cooks or kitchen staff so we can resume our Friday night meals along with our breakfast events. Presently meals before the meetings are on hold until our meeting attendance improves. Meanwhile show up a little early, sit back, have a cool beverage and show some fellowship to old/new friends and to our new members.

Side Note: The matching Donation is still in effect and has been extended. So please, place donations in the jar on the bar or see an officer for your contribution. John Lawrence will update us on the matching donation status at our next meeting which is on April 6, 2021 at 7pm.
