OCTOBER 2021 VOLUME 112, NUMBER 7.

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE:

Dear Members,
-There seems to be a bit of winter in the summer breeze these days, have you noticed? Darlene Parrish and Karen Wakefield cooked a delicious Meat Loaf dinner on August 18th and donated the cost to the Lodge. Karen and Les H. spearheaded a steak dinner for 65 and it sold out the first day. Noreen and Jeanie filled many glasses of cheer. Paul and Arlene S. started off our new soup and sandwich meals with a delicious beef vegetable and Mike Sr. provided a plentiful sandwich bar. Julian and Korin K. took control on the 15th with Potato soup and the most perfect grilled cheese sandwiches I have ever seen, delicious. Please consider sharing your expertise on a Wednesday evening.

-The front office personnel are now elected and installed. The Secretary position goes to Bob A. and the Treasurer position goes to Mike Sr.. The office hours are now 8:30 to 11:30 Monday, Tuesday, and Friday. Significant changes in the way we do business are in the works, so stay tuned.

-Les and Karen have agreed to host our hamburger Friday semimonthly meals until the end of the year. Thank you for your dedication over the years.

-Now is the time to make decisions: Do we continue soup and sandwich Wed. meals?

-Is anyone prepared to continue Hamburger Friday's twice a month?

-The American Legion has received word that a Scout Troop is in need of a home do we invest our time and resources in scouting's future?

-Noreen is doing well at the beverage booth, but help is occasionally needed, can you step up?

-We need a hoop shoot chairman, can you help?

-Dick G will be soliciting businesses starting this month for donations, the holidays are just around the corner.

-Annette R will be busy working on the Christmas food and toy drive. Please contact her to adopt a family or two who might otherwise do without.

-Finally, there is a rumor about a costume party at the lodge this month, be prepared. Bring us a new member or two.

*Yours in Elkdom
Joe Lieto*

FROM THE DESK OF THE SECRETARY:*Here it is September and we still have members that are delinquent on their dues for 2021. Below is the list of names of those members. If you know them a reminder may be all it takes. The Elks is a great organization that does great work and fellowship. Don't let your membership lapse.Joe Benetti, Patrick Bringardner, Donald Davenport, Lee Golder, Roy Harris, Gordon Joelson, Joseph Moore, Lacie Salyers, James Surber, Gary Williams, Diane Wisner and Donald Wyatt.THANK YOU:September 10, we served 60 people a steak dinner. I hope you were there. It wouldn't have happened without an army of volunteers who helped to get the job done. Les Hofer and Bob Aton were our pit masters. Jeannie Blocker and ER Joe Leito, Corrine and Julian King, Lou Kolkhorst and Cindy Lusby, Dave Borchert, Annette Reher, and of course our volunteer bartender, Noreen Greiner all did a fantastic job in getting the food and drinks out to our guests. A special thanks goes to our friends at the Redding Lodge for joining us for the evening. I hope I didn't forget anyone who helped, but if I did, please accept my apologies.Several people have asked for the recipe for the dessert served at the meal. I am happy to share.White Chocolate Mousse

1 cup heavy whipping cream
 2 TBS sugar

Beat until stiff

3 ounces white chocolate
 3 ounces softened cream cheese

Melt chocolate. Beat with cream cheese and fold into whipped cream.Refrigerate. Serve with berry topping, either fresh whole berries or mashed with a little sugar.

HE'S AN ELK

(A 1900 era poem by M. J. Phillips, of Owosso Lodge MI, B. P. O. E.)

If he's looking up, not down,
He's an Elk;
If he'd rather smile than frown,
He's an Elk.
If he's jolly, broad and fat,
If he wears a man's sized hat,
Take a tip from things like that
He's an Elk.

If he sees some good in all,
He's an Elk.
If he helps the men who fall,
He's an Elk.
If he looks you in the eye,
Gives a courteous reply,
If he's shrewd, but never sly.
He's an Elk.

When he dies and goes above.
Brother Elk,
To the golden Lodge of Love,
Brother Elk,
Does St. Peter hesitate ?
No, he swings wide the pearly gate:
"Come in, you don't have to wait
Brother Elk"
