Summer has arrived and much is happening at the Lodge. Vic's Harborside Restaurant is now open. Victor Gomes, the Proprietor, is a lifelong East Bay resident. He has extensive restaurant experience that began over 40 years ago in the family business, Jack's Restaurant. Membership growth continues and as we continue into the summer more members will be visiting the Lodge. That means parking will be "tight". Two cars can park if the first one in an area moves fully forward and allows a second to park behind. The House Committee is very active, The Queen of Hearts Raffle is ongoing and tickets are available at the bar all week. The weekly drawing occurs Friday night at 7 PM. Complete contest details are posted at the Lodge for review when you purchase a strip of tickets. The best way to see what is going on each month is to read this monthly newsletter and locate the monthly calendar. Also, check out the Secretary's message for the important information found there. The replacement windows for the two "blurred" ones in the bar area are scheduled to be replaced in mid- June. Finally, any member with a question or concern is welcome to call me at 401-573-9453. Doing so may lessen that concern and make me "smarter" on member concerns.

Dick Devault, ER

Secretary's Message – June

Secretary's email: bpoe1860@aol.com

Fellow Elks,

The summer months are finally here and what better time is there to come down and enjoy your beautiful Lodge! Enjoy a delicious dinner and have a cool drink while viewing a breathtaking sunset on our deck! Please remember to sign in your guests and let's continue our tradition of extending our warm hospitality to our many visiting Elk members. We will be sending out a delinquent dues notice soon. If there is a medical or financial situation that is preventing you from paying your dues this year please notify us in order for the Lodge to provide you some assistance.

Jeff Brackett, PER Lodge Secretary

WHO WANTS TO PLAY GOLF?

We want to organize a golf outing for all Bristol Elks golfers, men and women, singles or couples. Who is interested?

Let's start with a single outing. Maybe this could lead to additional outings? Perhaps this evolves into an organized league? Who knows? First, let's find out who wants to play!!!

Interested??? Got ideas???

Sickness and Distress

It is my sad duty to inform the Members of the Bristol County Elks Lodge that Raye L. H. Fucito, PER, passed away peacefully this past weekend. As many of you know, Raye was a very dedicated Elk to the Order and to our Lodge. Please keep Raye, Peter, and their entire family in your prayers.

Raye Fucito's service is going to be held next Monday night, June 6, at Connors Funeral Home, 55 West Main Road, Portsmouth. The hours are from 2:00 - 5:00pm.

The Odd Fellows Ritual will be held at 4:30pm and the Elks Ritual at 4:45pm. Officer's attire will be Blue and Gray.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked for donations to ENF in Raye's memory. Envelopes will be available at the funeral home.

Patti Baccus, SP

Sometimes we fail to mention someone who is in the hospital or sick. To keep all our members updated, please call me at 401-935-5966 or email me at ahozempa@gmail.com. Thank you! Aggie Hozempa
