Exalted Ruler's Message

Greetings! I'm happy to report that things are moving along nicely at the Lodge this year. The lounge is busy, new members are being initiated, fraternal needs are being served and events are being well attended.

Italian Night was October 6th and we honored our Chief of Police, Michael Ricciardelli, as our Public Servant of the Year. I'd like to personally thank Richard "Moose" Martino for serving as head chef that night, Robert Van Campen for serving as emcee, and the House and Entertainment Committees for providing servers and kitchen help. Your efforts were greatly appreciated. I would also like to thank Ron Delgenio, Jimmy Carter and their crew for all their hard work in running the pig roast/lobster party. The event was a smashing success and the food was great!

Check out the calendar in this bulletin, and try to participate in as many events as you can. November is going to be a very busy month at the Lodge and I hope that everyone takes advantage of the myriad of different activities that are being made available.

Finally, remember to treat/tip your bartenders well. They work hard for all of us and deserve our appreciation.

Thank you, and see you at the Lodge! Rob Strasnick, ER

Joke of the Month

It's game 7 of the NBA finals and a man makes his way to his seat at center court. He sits down and notices that the seat next to him is empty. He leans over and asks his neighbor if someone is sitting there. He responds, "No, the seat's empty." The first man exclaims, "What?!? Who in their right mind would have a seat like this for the NBA finals and not use it?" The neighbor responds, "Well the seat is mine, but my wife passed away and this is the first NBA finals we haven't been together." The first man responds, "I'm sorry to hear that. Wasn't there anyone else, a friend or relative, that could've taken that seat?" The neighbor responds, "No, they're all at the funeral."

Heard a good one lately? Send it off to the Editor and your joke could be published in next month's newsletter
