Take care – Be Safe

Message from ER Joe Tice

Happy New Year to everyone! 2022 felt like being on a roller coaster at Disneyland. You go up this incline and it's exciting and then all of a sudden, a huge drop like you are going to crash into the ground. That is how I can best describe 2022 in regards to our lodge.

2022 was the year we really opened up from COVID only to be shut down by the fire occurring in our sauna and steam room back in early July right after coming back from our national convention in Atlanta, Georgia. I have missed our Tuesday night dinners and seeing people enjoy their dinner or a wonderful cocktail at our main bar.

But never fear, we will be re-open very soon. 2023 will be the year the Phoenix Rises. Our lodge will be more improved with a careful detail to the needs of our members. Please stay tuned when we announce our reopening because we are going to celebrate like never before.

Fraternally yours, Joseph Leroy Tice

LODGE LOCKER ROOMS

The engineer has drawings of the new locker room coming to us by the 26th of December. He has a couple of ideas on how to configure the locker room. I will post them on the glass door outside the secretary's office. If you have time to get by the lodge and take a look. We will be voting for the one to move forward with, at the general meeting on January 12th. This is a very important decision as it will be the way the locker room is laid out for a very long time.

Christmas Volunteers

As we know it takes a lot of work and great team to make an event successful. I would like to thank my fantastic team of volunteers who stepped up with their joyful smiles. With the help of our PVP/PER Fred Guerrero getting us a beautiful hall and our wonderful Elves who shop, wrap, deliver gift cards for our Special Needs Children, setup & cleanup the hall and take photos.

Special thank you to my fabulous Elves for another successful SSF Elk's Children Christmas Event. Stacey Valentin, Carol Meyers, Ed Serrano, Linda Grassi, Pamela Reppen. Sylvia Warnes, Joe Tice, Terrence Mullady, our Photographer Aldo Parra Jr, fabulous Santa Walter Della Santina and Mrs. Claus

Yours truly

Jackie Serrano Elk's Children Christmas Organizer.

We ALL wish you and your family a Very Merry Christmas

SPECIAL NEEDS CHRISTMAS

Our SSF Elk Lodge 2091 gave Target Christmas gift cards to two SN programs. With help of the SN teachers from Palos Verses school and director of California Children SVC Medical Therapy Unit, we as Elk members, bring little smile on the children's faces and joy in their homes for Christmas.

New laws Californians must start following in 2023

Dustin Gardiner,Sophia BollagSFChronicleDec. 5, 2022

Hundreds of new laws passed by the California Legislature will take effect in the new year, from legalizing jaywalking in many scenarios to a higher minimum wage for more workers. Most of them take effect on Jan. 1. Here are 14 new laws coming to California in 2023: Jaywalking: Pedestrians will no longer be cited for crossing the street outside of a crosswalk, unless they are in immediate danger of being hit. AB2147 by Assembly Member Phil Ting, D-San Francisco, prohibits police officers from stopping or citing people for jaywalking "unless a reasonably careful person would realize there is an immediate danger" of a collision with a vehicle or bicyclist. Minimum wage: California's $15 minimum wage will expand to nearly all employees, including those working for small businesses. The hourly wage hike applies to employees of businesses with 25 or fewer workers. It's the final step in a seven-year plan to phase in a statewide $15 minimum wage, which extended to employees of larger businesses in 2022. Legislators approved the wage increases with SB3 in 2016, by then-Sen. Mark Leno, D-San Francisco. Many cities in the Bay Area have ordinances that require a higher base wage.

Mental illness: By October 2023, San Francisco and six other California counties will begin to implement a new system called Care Court that aims to get severely mentally ill people off the streets and into treatment. SB1338 will create a new way for family, community members, probation officers and others to refer people with psychotic disorders like schizophrenia into treatment. Under the law, judges will order people to participate in treatment plans and require counties to provide services to them. All counties must begin the program by December 2024.

Housing: Developers looking to build housing in sleepy commercial areas, such as vacant parking lots, strip malls and office parks, will have an option to fast-track their projects. AB2011 by Assembly Member Buffy Wicks, D-Oakland, streamlines zoning and permit approvals for housing in many urban areas, as long as about 15% of rental units will be designated affordable. Wicks' bill also allows developers to hire non-union workers for the projects so long as they pay such workers prevailing wages and offer health benefits. The bill takes effect July 1.

Abortion: Nurse practitioners will be able to perform first-trimester abortions without a doctor's supervision under another new law taking effect in 2023. SB1375 by Senate President Pro Tem Toni Atkins, D-San Diego, is one of about a dozen new laws that aim to increase abortion access in California, some of which have already taken effect.

Gunmaker lawsuits: Companies that make or sell illegal firearms in California could face a host of new lawsuits. SB1327 by Sen. Robert Hertzberg, D-Van Nuys (Los Angeles County, allows private citizens to sue firearm manufacturers and dealers in civil court, with a minimum bounty of at least $10,000, if they sell assault weapons or ghost guns, including precursor parts, in California. The bill's bounty-hunter provision, using private lawsuits as an enforcement mechanism, is modeled on a restrictive Texas abortion law. A related bill, AB1594 by Ting, will allow California residents, its attorney general and local governments to sue gunmakers and sellers for harm their products cause if they break state law. It mostly takes effect July 1.

Criminal records: Many people will prior convictions or arrests will be able to shield that past from criminal background checks. SB731 by State Sen. Maria Elena Durazo, D-Los Angeles, will not erase a person's criminal record but will let people have their record electronically sealed from public view. Prior offenders qualify only if they've completed all terms of their court sentence, including any prison or probation time, and kept clear of the justice system. The option won't be available to people convicted of a serious or violent felony, such as murder, kidnap, rape or any crime that requires a person to register as a sex offender. The law takes effect July 1, 2023. COVID misinformation: Doctors who spread incorrect claims about COVID-19, including about the effectiveness of vaccines and untested treatments for people who get infected, will more easily face discipline. AB2098 by Assembly Member Evan Low, D-Sunnyvale, makes it easier for the Medical Board of California to discipline physicians who spread incorrect claims about COVID-19 by defining such activity as "unprofessional conduct" under state law. The medical board is the state agency charged with licensing and disciplining physicians, and it can suspend a doctor's license or mandate probation for misconduct. Two anti-vaccine doctors, backed by conservative activists and the left-leaning American Civil Liberties Union, are already challenging the law in court. Student athletes: Many college athletes in the state will be guaranteed the ability to make money off the use of their names and images. SB206 by Sen. Nancy Skinner, D-Berkeley, will apply to athletes at California public and private universities that make at least $10 million a year from intercollegiate athletics media rights, which covers most major universities in the state. Under the bill passed in 2019, the NCAA cannot prohibit third parties from paying athletes for endorsements and appearances. The bill nudged the NCAA to adopt an interim rule, in 2021, lifting its national ban prohibiting athletes from engaging in such activity.

Loitering: Police will no longer be allowed to arrest and cite people whom they suspect of walking the streets in search of sex work. SB357 by state Sen. Scott Wiener, D-San Francisco, repeals a 1995 law that prohibits loitering in public places with the "intent to commit prostitution." LGBTQ advocates labeled the loitering prohibition a "walking while trans" ban because they said it resulted in police targeting transgender women and women of color over innocuous factors like how they dress or where they stand on the street.

Fur: Fashionistas will no longer be able to buy new mink coats or chinchilla vests. AB44 by Assembly Member Laura Friedman, D-Glendale (Los Angeles County), outlaws the sale and manufacture of new fur clothing and accessories. The law passed in 2019, but legislators delayed implementation until 2023 to give retailers time to unload their inventories. Retailers can still sell secondhand fur clothing or decor. The ban won't apply to faux fur, which is generally made from plastics. It also doesn't apply to leather, taxidermied animals, cowhides and the full skin of deer, sheep and goats. Salary transparency: California employers with more than 15 employees will need to start including pay scales in their job postings in 2023. SB1162 by Sen. Monique Limón, D-Santa Barbara, also requires employers to give workers the pay scale for their jobs and maintain job title and wage history data for each employee. That data will be subject to inspection by the state labor commissioner, who could impose fines of up to $10,000 for violations. Limón said the measure is aimed at helping women and people of color close pay gaps with their white, male coworkers.

Lunar New Year: Asian Americans and others who celebrate Lunar New Year will have a new state holiday to mark the occasion. AB2596 by Assembly Member Evan Low, D-Sunnyvale, establishes Lunar New Year as a state holiday and allows any state employees to take a day off in observation. Lunar New Year, a major celebration in many Asian cultures, is typically observed at the end of January or the beginning of February, when the first new moon of the year starts. The date of the holiday will vary by year, but will typically correspond with the second new moon following the winter solstice.

YEAR TO DATE VETS REPORT

We are now in the Third Quarter that will end in December. So far this Quarter. on, 10/15/22 we delivered clothing (underwear and socks) to the Colma Veterans Village. Cost of clothing: $29.51. I was the only Elk involved. Time involved for shopping, driving, and presence at Colma Veterans Village: 4 hours total. Driving mileage (shopping, and attendance at Colma Vets Village): 20 miles.

On 11/21/2022 we purchased 2 boxes of Keurig K-cups (total of 200 K-cups) for the 2 Palo Alto Fisher Houses. The Fisher Houses provide free lodging for the families, including children, of veterans hospitalized at VA Palo Alto. These families travel from all over the US and the Pacific Rim to be at the bedside of their loved ones who need specialized medical treatment that VA Palo Alto Healthcare System provides. The Fisher Houses rely on donations of food and other items for daily living that the resident families need during the time their veteran loved ones are hospitalized. Length of stay is 2-weeks to several months. Our lodge has been supporting the Palo Alto Fisher Houses for the past 2-3 years. NOTE:: At the Nov 10th lodge meeting, Jere Williams made the comment that the San Mateo and Redwood City Elks lodges also support the Palo Alto Fisher Houses. This was incorrect. I checked with the Manager of the Fisher Houses and she told me that our lodge was the only local lodge currently supporting the Fisher Houses, and she was very grateful for our continued support.

Volunteer time and cost of K-cups for 11/21/2022 Support of Palo Alto Fisher Houses. Cost: $74.87. Mileage: 76 miles round trip. Number of Elks: 1 (me). Hours involved (shopping, purchase on delivery of Kcups):6 hours.

Other Support for Hospitalized vets at VA

PaloAlto: NOTE: This was an activity I did on my own, and Chris Babcock our lodge member drove me to Palo Alto. If you think you want to include the following information in your report on 12/8, it is OK with me.

12/1/22: Delivered to VA Palo Alto Voluntary Service: 2 large raffle baskets I made to support a hospitalwide fundraiser for veteran inpatients.

Cost of raffle baskets: Estimate: $80. Number of Elks involved: 2(me and Chris). Mileage: 76 miles round trip).

NOTE: While at VA Palo Alto on 12/1/22, Chris and I met with the Manager of the Defender's Lodge. Our Elks Lodge Vets Committee previously supported the Defenders' Lodge in the Second Quarter. On the 12/1 visit, I met with the Manager to ascertain the vets needs that our lodge could meet in the Fourth Quarter. The Defenders' Lodge Manager also gave me and Chris Babcock a tour of the lodge. This visit should be considered a Vets Committee visit. Length of time: 2 hrs. Travel miles:

76 miles round trip. Number of Elks Involved:2 Number of Non-elks: 1 (Lodge Mgr,)

NOTE: The Palo Alto Defenders lodge has 52 rooms and provides a free place to stay, on campus, for veterans who travel great distances for outpatient visits. Length of stay is normally 1 night and the lodge is usually fully booked. The lodge relies on donations of food and other items (books,games ,puzzles, etc) for the vets in residence. We plan to donate needed items, again. in the Fourth Quarter.

Our lodge also purchased 1 special teak shower bench for the Palo Alto Fisher House. This item was on the Fisher Houses' Amazon Wish List. Stacey Valenrin. lodge secretary. used our lodge credit card to purchase this needed item. The cost was: $137.49. The cost will be paid from our Veterans budget This purchase was made in October or November and will be included on our lodge Veterans Committee Third Quarter report to the Bay District Veterans Services Coordinator.

HEADS UP FOR THE COMING MONTHS

We are planning to have a Warm Coat, Jacket, Sweater Drive for Vets and Homeless males in the coming months. (No suits)

They would prefer new, but used and those in good shape will be accepted. Start looking in your closet, ask a neighbor if they have any that can be donated.

Thanks for your help,

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., December 7, 2022 – South San Francisco Police Chief Scott Campbell has promoted Sergeant Fahmida Murphy to Police Lieutenant, effective immediately.
