FROM OUR EXALTED RULER

February was a great month to be an Elk! We had a few events that demonstrated 5247 what we are truly about.

The fundraiser for Dale Lipe was an amazing display of generosity from our fellow Elks and the community as a whole. Thank you to everyone that helped organize and put on that beautiful evening. We all hope for a speedy recovery for Dale. We also partnered with the VFW for a Friday night feed to raise money for veteran's services. We look forward to continuing 4148 to work with local organizations to support our veterans.

February also brought the Missouri Elks State President to town. We enjoyed a delicious taco bar and great fellowship with everyone that came out. As always, Spotty did an amazing job with entertainment for all of our events and thank you to Tim Holmes for all his help through the month with the Super Bowl and 5171 various activities. March is the last month in our lodge calendar. We will have an initiation towards the end of the month plus installing all of our new officers.

I have truly enjoyed being your exulted ruler this year and could not have done it without all the amazing support from fellow officers, past officers, and everyone that has helped with the activities this year. Our lodge is so full of goodhearted people that it should make every one of us proud to be a Nevada Elk. Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to be your Exalted Ruler this year, and I am excited for 4766 what Jeff is going to have in store for you next year! I know he will do an amazing job and continue to make our lodge even stronger!!!
