

Greetings everyone!

I hope you all had a good month of May. We started out the month with a fun night of Rock & Roll Bingo with a Mexican meal. Next, we had a fabulous Mother's Day brunch. Thanks you to all the mothers and their families for coming out.

We participated in the Rhody Grand Parade on a 1940's era fire engine! It was a great time! I hope everyone enjoyed the pancake breakfast and spaghetti feed.

It was an honor to be part of the Memorial Day celebration with the American Legion to honor our fallen veterans.

Thanks to Susan Taylor for the amazing Memorial Day floral work again this year. I'm looking forward to June with our planned activities and state summer convention in Pasco.

A huge THANK YOU to Steve Spencer-PER for putting on a great Cornhole fundraiser in support of Jack Gaddis' sudden illness.

Fraternally Yours,

Jim Aman, Exalted Ruler
