WAR OF THE WORLDS: THE PANIC BROADCAST

We are pleased to announce we had another successful show. Casey Eubank our guest director from Wichita, directed War of the Worlds: The Panic Broadcast, adapted by Joe Landry. It was inspired by and including the Mercury Theatre on the Air's Infamous 1938 Radio Play. The cast included Mike Shryock, Tom Storrer, Jayden Drake, Rose Wilson, Amanda Dahna and Sean Cutsinger. Shiela Hoyt and myself were the Stage Managers. The show ran two weekends, Friday and Saturday evenings, October 20, 21, 27, and 28.

An alien invasion throws humanity into chaos in this classic sci-fi novel. All it took to cause real-life panic in the streets was Orson Welles's 1938 radio adaptation, which listeners took for news. Now, ten years later, the WBFR radio ensemble recreated the colorful events surrounding the infamous evening, including the full original broadcast. Complete with vintage commercials and live sound effects, this radio-play-within-a-radio-play is a thrilling homage to the form's golden age and timely reminder of what fear can do to a society.

A huge thank you to Marsha and Roger Cutsinger, Karen Andersen, Barbara Trent, Jim Masters, Lisa Jack, Stan Willis, Shiela and Rex Hoyt, Michelle and Jed Morse, Deb Kirkpatrick, John Britt, Rodger Decker, and Kathy Morrow. Without all these people we could not have pulled this show off. Thank you and Break-a-leg! Sean Cutsinger

From the Desk of the Chaplain & News Writer

*Hello my fellow members. Well it is that time of year again when we all give thanks. For me first and foremost I want to thank God, for all the good he has given me in my life. I want to thank my parents who brought me into this world, for loving me and believing in me. I want to thank my sister for her heart of gold. I want to thank my best of friends for keeping me grounded and true to myself. I want to thank my boss for her respect and guidance. I want to thank you, my Elks family for your support and love these past few difficult months. Please continue to keep my parents in your prayers during this holiday season, as they continue to heal in this new journey in life. This Thanksgiving remember to thank God. Thanksgiving is historically a time to praise and thank God for our blessings, and ask him to heal this great nations' wounds. This is also the national day of penitence to humbly ask God to repent for our sins and selfishness. During the Civil War, President Abraham Lincoln declared Thanksgiving: "As a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens. And I recommend to them that while offering up the ascriptions justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to His tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and Union." In the Bible, thanksgiving means devotion, sacrifice, praise, or an offering. According to christianity.com "Thanksgiving is to glorify God as an act of worship, giving thanks for all things as part of God's providence." Thanksgiving is a relationship between God and man. The pilgrims composed "The Mayflower Compact", this was to honor God and acknowledging God as faithful, giving him thanks unconditionally, and for his abundant blessings. One of my favorite Thanksgiving scripture quotes is "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God." (Philippians 4:6) This thanksgiving, remember what the holiday is truly for and remember to Give Thanks. My email is SeanCutsinger@gmail.com. God Bless You & Our Lodge!!!, Sean
