

Sebring Elks New Members January-December 2023

December 2023

On December the 7th, 2023, the Sebring Elks #1529 initiated 6 new members. This Lodge is becoming more and more successful due to new membership and the dedication of all its members. Anyone interested in joining this benevolent organization, please contact the office #863-385-8647. You don't want to miss out on the social aspect as well as the community activities! Pictured l-r: Gerald Adams, Gregory Griffin, Tony Bassett, Stanley Hale, Ruth Anne Winder-Carr, & Victor Divietro.

November 2023

On November 2, 2023, The Sebring Elks #1529 with great pleasure welcomed 15 new members. As the Elks continue to grow, this Benevolent and Protective Order is able to contribute more and more to the community. Members from all walks of life and talents are making this Lodge a success.

Pictured front l-r: Tammy Grills, Cory Tomblin, Eric Lynch, Matthew Cleveland, Elgin Bayless, Philip Candela, Beth Parker, and Jerry Parker. Back l-r: Jim Robbins, Richard Robbins, Edward Mulchy, Michael Emigh, James Smith, Steve Clark, and Jerry Jacob.

October 2023

The Sebring Elks #1529 are humbled and excited to announce that eight American citizens have chosen to join this Benevolent and Protective organization. On October 5, 2023, the following were initiated into the Elks Brotherhood. Pictured in back l-r: Martin Bowers, John Kromholz, Kimberly Harrington, Christine Mollenkopf-Pigsley, Thomas Bancroft, and Danilo Molina. front l-r: Linda Granata and Barbara Caraballo.

September 2023

Sebring Elks #1529 welcomed two new members to this great Brotherhood in September. Pictured l-r: Tom Caldwell and Ed Stevens. We look forward to getting to know them and have them participate in all the volunteer as well as social activities. As a member, they are now part of a 150+ year history and are welcomed in all Elk Lodges across American (nearly 2000 of them.)

August 2023

Sebring Elks #1529 welcomes 9 new members in the month of August. Proudly displaying the American Flag (which is given to every new member as a "memento of the occasion" are l-r: Rachel Walburn, Vincent Juranek, Derek Melvin, R. Craig Williams, Gwendolyn Haviland, Doreen Clayton, Craig Adams, Richard Kipp, and Richard Woodward.

July 2023

The criteria in joining the Elks Organization are that a person needs to be 21 years old, be an American citizen, and believe in God. The Sebring Elks #1529 proudly welcomed 20 new members to this Benevolent Organization on July 6th.

Pictured: front row l-r: Jose & Teri Dosil, Nikki & Dustin McGee, Brenda Caraballo, Patricia Anthony, and Christopher and Catherine Gunter. Second row l-r: Dearl Livingston, Austin Oppold, Cindy Marshall, Marcia Davis, Ross Vickers, Michael Waldron, and David Travers Jr. Standing l-r: Sylvia Sanders, Stacey Lenihan, Jennifer Culverhouse, Kevin Worth, and Andrew Dean.

June 2023

On Thursday, June 1, 2023, the Sebring Elks #1529 was pleased to welcome 8 new members. This benevolent/social organization continues to grow and with its growth, the Highlands community is the better for it. The new members look forward to helping the Lodge prosper as well as making new friendships. Pictured: back: l-r: Cheryl Green, James Lizotte, Janice Rearick, and Greg Carkeet. Front: l-r: Joseph Musso, Jacqueline Maxcy, Donna Howerton, and Brenda Walton

May 2023

The Sebring Elks #1529 initiated two new members on May 4, continuing the growth of this benevolent organization. All our members look forward to meeting them and getting to know them better. Pictured l-r: Chief Dennis Green and Richard Raaflaub, Jr.

April 2023

The Sebring Elks #1529 started their 2023/2024 calendar year off to a great start. On Thursday, April 20, 2023, six new members were initiated. Pictured l-r: Ronald Boltz, John Clement, Brandon Craig, Gerald Dangelo, Jean Raaflaub, and Melissa Stockenberg.

March 2023

The Sebring Elks #1529 initiated into the Order three new members on March 9, 2023. As part of the Ritual of Initiation into this Benevolent and Protective Order, the candidates are presented with an American Flag as a patriotic memento of the occasion. Pictured l-r: Don Herman, Donna Caldwell, and John Sandquist.

February 2023

On February 16, 2023, the Sebring Elks #1529 proudly welcomed two new members to this Benevolent and Protective Organization. Pictured l-r are: Jerry Hettinger and Ronald Rahl.

January 2023

The Sebring Elks #1529 welcomed in the New Year by initiating 18 new members! Initiation was a fun time as they introduced themselves and showed enthusiasm and gratefulness in joining this Benevolent and Protective Organization of Elks. Pictured in back (l-r): Daniel Ahrman, Michael Bateman, Todd Berger, Julie Bohnert, Joseph Boyer, Brian Cesare, Florence and Thomas Drago, and Chris Gilbert. Front (l-r): Angela and Stanley Klingensmith, Jerry McGill, Karen Moore, Laura Perez, Robin Russo, Susan Shade, Karl Stephenson, and Gordon Walkington.

