Greetings,

I hope everyones holidays have been good so far. As I am writing this we are in the middle collecting and processing deer hides. Next year I would love to see more participation from our members. We owe it to our veterans to support such a program.

As many of you have noticed we've had some new concrete work done to the east outdoor area. Next time you see Trevor Paulus or anyone with Paulus Concrete make sure you give them a big thank you.

Come join us on new years day. Kevin Mahan will have the famous Tom & Jerry's going that morning. If you've never had one of them you are really missing out. Bring a snack to share and enjoy some football.

As always be sure to keep up with the newsletter and Facebook to see what exciting events are happening over the next few months.

Your Exalted Ruler,
Tyler Mahan

The Iowa State Elks Association is pleased to offer twenty (20) $1500.00 Vocational Grants to those pursuing a VOCATIONAL (2 years or less) training/educational program. The scholarships are now open to current high school seniors OR any non-traditional student (second career, etc.) pursuing such a program. You do not have to be an Elks member to apply. The application can be found at www.iowaelks.org/enf/scholarships. The deadline is March 3rd, 2025. These applications must be printed and presented to me or Dave Neely. I'll have a supply at the entrance of the lodge or contact me directly at 641.344.1155. This is a great opportunity, pass the word along! Thanks!
