

For Country and Community

Veterans and First Responders

Free Lunch at the Newport Elks

Who: Active duty, Reserve, Guard, and veterans from all branches as well as first responders including law enforcement, fire, EMS, and dispatch at local, county, state, and federal levels.

What: Free lunch provided by the Newport Elks for those who have served or are serving country and community. The menu will vary from month to month, and will include foods like pizza or sandwiches, and a soft drink.

When: Join us on the second Saturday of every month at noon.

Where:

Newport Elks Lodge #2105

45 SE Moore Drive

Newport, OR 97365

Phone: (541) 265-2105

email: TheNewportElks2105@gmail.com

Why: As a fraternal organization proudly engaged in Newport, the Elks recognize your service and dedication to country and community.

We humbly offer our thanks.

Our goal is to show our gratitude while creating opportunities for friendship, networking, and growth for veterans and first responders.