The Mountain Home Elks lodge #1714 awarded a $900 scholarship to Haley Herren for her to participate in a one week educational trip to Washington D.C. with 55 fellow students. This trip is being led by Bud Zorman who is a Mountain Home Junior High teacher as well as an Elk. Haley Herren was awarded the scholarship based on her academic results, school conduct, and need. The students will have a very busy schedule for they will be visiting the White House, Capitol Hill, all war memorials, National Archives, Arlington National Cemetery, and the Lincoln Memorial. They will also visit Mount Vernon, Gettysburg and the various battle grounds. They will also visit the Chocolate World and Hershey Park.
