

Vivian Arrested on a Charge of Assault and Battery.

Charles Vivian was arrested yesterday on a charge of assault and battery preferred by Kavanagh, the tailor. In yesterday's CHRONICLE a brief description was given of the difficulty, and to one portion thereof Mr. Vivian demurs, to wit: It was stated that on his last visit to the tailor's he was accompanied by a posse of Vivian's "bloomin' pals." Vivian requests us to say that there were but two friends with him; that he had brought them along to aid in a peaceable settlement of the b— dispute; and that it was not one of his friends who broke the glass. The crowd that swarmed into the tailor's shop was probably composed of chance passers. Vivian usually draws crowded houses, and this was no exception to the rule. Charles is engaged to appear in Judge Louderback's parlor entertainment this morning, when we shall probably have the epilogue to this domestic drama.
