

May this twenty-fifth anniversary of the birth of our lodge cement our friendships by its renewal of the memories of the good old days and the good old fellows who have left us.