Lodges welcome Elks to Kansas City for convention

By Mike Chamernik

Convention News Reporter

Thousands of Elks will come to Kansas City this week for the 160th Grand Lodge Convention. While the annual conference is centered around business and legislative sessions and learning seminars, what makes the event special is the chance to mingle with fellow Elks at the convention center and hotels—and beyond.

Several Lodges in the Kansas City area are opening their doors and inviting convention goers to stop by.

Located 10 miles north of the convention center, Kansas City (Northland), MO Lodge No. 2376 has events each night through Thursday. Along with lunches and dinners (with plenty of barbecue), live entertainment will include music trivia on Monday, a female Elvis tribute vocalist on Tuesday, a blues-rock band on Wednesday, and an acoustic guitarist on Thursday. The American Veterans Traveling Tribute wall is being displayed (Page 8) for the week as well. The Lodge has the usual lounge activities including a juke box, darts, and a pool table.

Chris Cooper, the Public Relations Chair of the Lodge, has been promoting his Lodge's events through social media, particularly the Finding the Herd at National Convention Facebook page. He's also printed and distributed flyers to the various downtown hotels where Elks are staying. The Lodge usually gets 30 out-of-town visitors a year, but they're bracing for a bigger turnout this week. They have more than 50 volunteers helping with everything from kitchen duty to airport greeting to driving a shuttle that will take visitors to and from the convention center.

excited to welcome guests. "It's not every day that convention is going to be 10 miles away from us," Cooper said.

Blue Springs, MO Lodge No. 2509 is a little further out, 23 miles east of the convention center, but it is worth the trip. The Lodge will have dinners Monday through Wednesday, and a magician will perform Wednesday. Visitors can also play a round at the public Adams Pointe Golf Club next door.

At 20,000 square feet, with two levels and a deck, the Lodge has room for company. Exalted Ruler Erik Grotenhuis said he expects around 50 guests a day during convention. He's eager to provide hospitality.

"We are proud of the city, we are proud of our Lodge," Grotenhuis said. "We love to open up our doors and share hospitality with people from around the country. We hope that we can showcase ourselves and the Elks to the best of our abilities."

Visitors to Kansas City, MO Lodge No. 26, located 11 miles south of downtown, will eat well. Meals include wings and sliders on Sunday night; barbecue on Monday night; pulled pork Tuesday afternoon; and sausage and peppers Tuesday night. Live music is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, and Bingo is slated for Wednesday.

"We have meals, entertainment and extended hours to welcome visitors," said Lodge Secretary Barbara J. Gunn. "Please come and meet our friendly Members."

Mona Brown, from Louisiana, MO Lodge No. 791, will be driving across the state to Kansas City. She plans to stop by Lodges on her way to and from the convention—it will get her closer to her goal of eventually visiting all 71 Elks Lodges in Missouri. Brown said she enjoys seeing the history of the older Lodge buildings and likes to learn how other Lodges operate. And she enjoys how welcoming other Members can be.

"Whenever we visit a Lodge," Brown said, "knock on the door or ring the bell or whatever, somebody will let you in. The next thing you know, somebody is buying you a drink and wanting to show you around."

ERs: Kansas City Reports due in October!

Exalted Rulers (or alternate delegates) should be reminded that they are required to attend the Annual Session and submit a Report to their Lodge no later than the first regular meeting in October. [GLS §12.120]

A good suggestion would be to save each edition of the Convention News, along with a copy of the Resolutions. Also, record how you voted on each resolution and submit to the Lodge with a cover letter. That will complete the obligation of your report to your Lodge.

G/L AUDITING
AND ACCOUNTING COMMITTEE

The Auditing and Accounting Committee will conduct two seminars on Monday and Tuesday to assist Lodges in their accounting tasks.

The Introduction to Lodge Accounting for Officers seminar will address the basics of using the recommended software to perform all the accounting tasks a Lodge needs. The session will be conducted using a live session of QuickBooks. It is recommended for all beginners and intermediate Lodge personnel who handle the bookkeeping at the Lodge level. The seminar is scheduled for 12:30–1:45 p.m. Monday and 2:15–3:30 p.m. Tuesday, both in Room 3501C in the Kansas City Convention Center.

The Advanced Lodge Accounting Topics seminar will address common areas where Lodges have issues with complying with Grand Lodge Statutes or federal and state information return requirements. Topics will include overhead allocation, an FRS overview, key submission points of Form 990, adjusting journal entries, depreciation expenses, and year-end closing of restricted funds. This session is scheduled for 2–3:15 p.m. Monday and 12:30–1:45 p.m. Tuesday, both in Room 3501C in the Kansas City Convention Center.

Each session will have a question and answer segment. Members are also able to stop by the committee’s booth in the exhibits area for one-on-one meetings to address specific issues. The committee looks forward to seeing you.

Thank You All!

INCOMING GOVERNMENT RELATIONS CHAIRMAN

W.J. "Billy" Bryan welcomes Robert E. Wambach to his new position of Chairman of the Grand Lodge Government Relations Committee. Bryan has served the Order on this Committee since 2019, with his last two years as Chairman. He was recently installed as President-Elect of the Texas Elks State Association.

Wambach is a 39-year Member and PER of Auburn, MA Lodge No. 2118. He has served as Chairman of the State Trustees and as State President in 2020-2021. On the state level he has chaired the Business Practices Committee and is currently the Chair of the Membership Committee. Wambach had the honor of serving as District Deputy in 2010-2011 and is currently serving his second term on the GL Government Relations

City Northland—again. Gustin is the National Housing Coordinator for Indiana and made a visit to the Lodge during the winter with his spouse and the incoming Indiana state president and first lady.

"Everyone was so friendly and so welcoming," Gustin said. "Actually, we had such a good time, we went back the very next night. They made us feel like we were part of their Lodge while we were there."

Gustin said that he's encouraging Indiana Elks to visit the Kansas City-area Lodges this week. Lodge visits can lead to learning opportunities, especially for fundraisers and State Major Projects.

But, even just enjoying the food, music, and companionship is good, too. Grotenhuis has popped in on Lodges from across the nation, from Seattle to Detroit, to Iowa and Kansas.

"It is easy to go someplace where you know you already have a common connection with all the folks there," Grotenhuis said. "You are all in some ways dealing with the same things. You start from a common spot and you really learn the different perspectives of the different regions. I'm always surprised at the commonality of the challenges we all face, and the ability to share ideas of what we've tried, and what has and hasn't worked. It has all been a positive experience for me when I go to those places."

"And I also love swapping pins with people. That's a good time." ★

DRUG AWARENESS COMMISSIONDRUG AWARENESS HOSTS TWO-DAY TRAINING SESSION

Prior to the opening of convention, State Drug Awareness Chairs attended a two-day training session in Kansas City. The training consisted of presentations regarding the many facets of the Elks drug awareness effort and included a presentation from Sean Fearn of the DEA regarding current trends and activities. He thanked all Elks for their work in educating the youth of America.

The Kent Gade Rookie of the Year Award was presented to Tiffany Budinger, Chair from Alaska. She was recognized for her exceptional participation during the past year. Budinger is the third recipient of the award since it was renamed in honor of longtime National Director, Kent Gade, who retired from the program a few years ago.

The Chairman of the Year Award, named after PGER Frank O. Garland, was presented to Cristine Crum from Wisconsin. Crum recently completed her 21st YouTube show, ICAN, where she conducts interviews and provides individuals with information regarding drug use and abuse.

Drug Awareness will hold a workshop on Tuesday from 1:30-3 p.m. in Room 3501G in the Kansas City Convention Center. Attendees will have an opportunity to meet and talk with this year's Enrique S. Camarena National Winner, Cpl. Jason Blair. All are welcome.

Traveling Vietnam Memorial wall comes to KC

By Mike Chamernik
Convention News Reporter

In addition to live music and barbecue, Kansas City (Northland), MO No. 2376 is also featuring an impactful tribute to our nation's veterans.

The Lodge secured an appearance by the American Veterans Traveling Tribute (AVTT) wall, a replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial wall in Washington, DC. Every name on the Vietnam wall is on the traveling wall, and the exhibit also has panels that commemorate veterans of other wars such as World War I, World War II, the Korean War, and Desert Storm.

Chris Cooper, the Public Relations Chair of the Lodge, said it is important to remember that a key part of Elksdom is to never forget our nation's veterans. Cooper said he was impressed by other veterans memorial traveling walls that he has seen.

"When I heard the timing of the wall and that they were going to be able to get it at convention, I was ecstatic," Cooper said. "The more people who can see it, the better."

Cooper said that his Lodge has 15 Members who are tasked with assembling and disassembling the traveling wall, which consists of 6-foot panels that stretch out to 89 feet long.

Mona Brown of Louisiana, MO Lodge No. 791 will be stopping at Kansas City Northland to see the wall this week. Military service is a big part of her family: Her dad served in the Army; her grandfather served in World War II along side his brother, who was killed in battle; and several members of her husband's family are Air Force veterans. Brown said her Lodge holds numerous charitable efforts for veterans, including annual hog roast fundraisers, Christmas parties for veterans, and donations to Hiring Heroes, a group that helps returning veterans get jobs and gain professional skills.

"Anything with veterans we are really involved with," Brown said.

Missouri State President Jason Meisenheimer is also serious about veterans service, as one of his motto's for his year is "Elks Never Forget, Thank A Vet."

"I'm very thankful that Kansas City Northland is bringing the wall up there so that people who haven't had the opportunity to go up to Washington DC and view it first-hand can experience it," Meisenheimer said. "[Visitors] can really understand the impact of what these heroes did for us, and the sacrifices they gave to ensure the freedoms that we have."

"We're the Show Me State. If you don't see it, you don't know." ★

Top of the Class: 2025 MVS Leadership Weekend

By Patrick Roelofs

ENF Communications Coordinator

In May, the Top 20 Most Valuable Student scholars visited Chicago for the Most Valuable Student Leadership Weekend. Dedicated to service and leadership, these high school seniors were selected out of 21,500 applications to receive $30,000 scholarships. Four hundred and eighty-two runners-up received $4,000 awards.

The scholars started the weekend by serving at Cradles to Crayons, a nonprofit dedicated to helping end youth clothing insecurity. Sorting clothes by size, ensuring quality standards, and bundling items into packages was the perfect way for scholars to bond.

"Everyone here has the same values of wanting to better themselves and help the people around them," said Sahand Khavari, sponsored by Plano, TX Lodge No. 2485. "Nothing's a chore. Even doing physical labor feels fun because we're around family."

To learn more about the Elks, the Top 20 visited the Elks National Memorial and Headquarters. After an architecture boat tour on the Chicago River, the scholars returned to the hotel to participate in Tell My Story, which gave them a chance to connect on a deeper level.

"Coming here and listening to your stories and getting to share my story, it made me feel comfortable being myself," said Hunter Kirk, sponsored by Fairfield, IL Lodge No. 1631, during the weekend's final reflection.

Following a final day of workshops and panel discussions about maximizing college success, the scholars visited the Willis Tower.

"It was an unforgettable weekend, and it'll be a memory for the rest of my life," said Ricky Lazaro, a 2025 Top 20 MVS scholar sponsored by San Antonio, TX Lodge No. 216. "To all the Elks—thank you."

For 2025-26, the Elks National Foundation allocated nearly $3 million to fund the Most Valuable Student scholarship program. For more info about the MVS scholarship program, including eligibility and deadlines, visit elks.org/scholars.

ELKS NATIONAL FOUNDATION

Going for Gold: 2025 Getty Powell Award winners

By Patrick Roelofs

ENF Communications Coordinator

Stepping up to the line at the Elks Hoop Shoot National Finals takes courage. With all eyes on them in a silent 10,000-seat arena, competitors must dig deep.

Carrigan Price and Cooper Thompson proved their grit at the 2025 National Finals in Chicago in April. They are this year's Getty Powell Award winners for the highest-scoring girl and boy.

In the Girls 8-9 division, both Eila Gress, sponsored by Madison, WI Lodge No. 410, and Price, sponsored by Columbia/Middletown, PA Lodge No. 1074, started with a perfect 10/10. Gress put immense pressure on Price, making 14 out of 15 to finish with a total score of 24/25.

After Gress's turn, Price sank her first four shots before missing her fifth. In a tremendous display of grit, Price drained her final 10 shots to force a shoot-off. After a five-round extra session, Price claimed her title as Frank Hise National Champion.

Two competitors in the Boys 12-13 division, Brazen Smith, sponsored by Wheeling, WV Lodge No. 28, and Thompson, sponsored by Claremore, OK Lodge No. 1230, couldn't miss. They both scored 25/25 in regulation to earn a shoot-off. After Smith missed his final two shots of the shoot-off, Thompson drilled all five for the victory. It was his first gold medal in four trips to the National Finals. He joins his older brother Cadan, 2020 National Champion, in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Price, Thompson, and their parents are guests of the Elks this weekend and will be introduced at the Opening Ceremony.

The Elks have been unleashing gritty kids through the Hoop Shoot program for more than 50 years. For 2025-26, the Elks National Foundation allocated nearly $1.5 million to fund the program. For videos, news, and more info about the Hoop Shoot, visit elks.org/hoopshoot.

ELKS NATIONAL FOUNDATION

$44.4 million allocated for ENF programs in 2025-26

By Patrick Roelofs

ENF Communications Coordinator

The mission of the Elks National Foundation is to help build stronger communities by investing in the places where Elks live and work.

In the 2025-26 fiscal year, the ENF is allocating $44.4 million to programs that improve the quality of life in Elks communities, help the State Associations accomplish their charitable objectives, serve the needs of today's veterans, and provide our youth with lifelong skills.

The largest of these programs is the Community Investments Program. Established 20 years ago, the CIP has grown from a budget of $350,000 to nearly $18 million, allowing each Lodge the opportunity to receive up to $11,000 in grants.

CIP grants require Elks to identify the needs of their communities, form a plan, and conduct an Elks-led, volunteer-based project. Similarly, State Associations address the needs of the community through charitable programs. The ENF will contribute $11.5 million to state grants this year.

The Elks National Veterans Service Commission provides aid and comfort to veterans in need. The ENF allocation to the ENVSC will increase by 12.7% this year to $6.4 million, the largest increase for any ENF appropriation this fiscal year. The allocation includes $3.8 million for the Welcome Home initiative to end veteran homelessness.

The ENF builds relationships with the leaders of tomorrow through scholarships. Nearly $5 million will be awarded to bright young minds as they pursue their academic goals and connect with Elks in their communities.

With the Hoop Shoot, the ENF is unleashing gritty kids who understand the importance of hard work. Nearly $1.5 million will be allocated to this national free throw program this year. The ENF also allocated more than $1 million for the Drug Awareness Program, a 12.2% increase over last year.

A 501(c)(3) public charity, the Elks National Foundation helps Elks support youth, serve veterans, and meet needs in areas where Elks live and work. For more information, visit elks.org/enf.
