Delegates consider resolutions in Legislative Session

By Ruth Kellar

Convention News Reporter

On the second day of the Grand Lodge Convention, delegates passed four and rejected three resolutions to amend the Statutes and Constitution of the Order during the legislative session. Delegates also heard from several Grand Lodge committees and commissions concerning their activities over the previous year and their plans for the year ahead, and congratulated the All-American Lodge winners and the champions of the Ritualistic Contest.

The resolutions that failed included a proposal to make participation in the physical loss and crime coverage policy provided by the Grand Lodge optional for Lodges. Two proposals dependent upon the passage of this resolution, and which permitted Lodges to satisfy the bond requirements for the Lodge Secretary and the Lodge Treasurer through an outside insurance company, also failed.

Resolutions that passed included a proposal to add a new section to the Laws of the Order defining what constitutes a Lodge Affiliate; a proposal clarifying that the suspension of the social privileges of a Member applies to all social functions and social activities of the Order; a proposal clarifying that if a Lodge adds the Secretary and Treasurer to the Board of Directors that the Lodge must ensure such action is consistent with its corporate documents; and a proposal authorizing the issuance of electronic membership cards and requiring Lodges to recognize them in the same manner as paper cards. A national webinar will be made available at Elks.org sometime during the following weeks that will provide more information regarding electronic membership cards.

Trustee Chairman Timothy F. Jaeger, in his final report, indicated that the 2026-2027 dues would be fixed at $6.50 for the Grand Lodge, between $15.00 and $25 for the insurance assessment, and $5.50 for The Elks Magazine.

While the results of the voting were being tabulated, Grand Secretary Bryan R. Klatt gave an update on the Disaster Relief Fund, which provided $50,000 worth of emergency aid to Elks Members over the course of the past year. Klatt reported that the Disaster Relief Fund received a total of $1,046,315 over the past year and has $1,129,281 on hand to respond to disasters.

Government Relations Committee Chairman William J. Bryan reported that the total national giving by the Order in time, money, and in-kind donations had been extremely generous over the past year. Bryan congratulated the Elks on increasing their giving, which had already crossed the threshold of half a billion dollars last year, by more than $15 million, amounting this year to a total of $520,524,340. Next up was Harley R. Eckert Jr., Chairman of the Auditing and Accounting Committee. He announced that around 13% of Lodges have not submitted the appropriate financial documents. He stressed the necessity of Lodges doing so to avoid problems with the IRS.

Next, Grand Secretary-Elect Carl Seibert gave a Chicago and Grand Lodge report, during which he commended GER-Elect Klatt's 17 years of service as Grand Secretary. Seibert also noted that nearly a third of staff at the Elks headquarters in Chicago have worked there for more than 15 years, diligently supporting the Grand Secretary's Office and all the programs and their associated departments.

GER-Elect Bryan R. Klatt then took the podium and spoke about his program for the coming year, which he

ELKS NATIONAL FOUNDATION

Continuing a Legacy

In April, 350 high school seniors received Legacy Awards from the Elks National Foundation. The $4,000 scholarships are available to the children and grandchildren of Elks.

Legacy Awards scholars are required to perform three instances of service with a Lodge over the four years they receive the scholarship. This empowers them to connect with neighbors in their communities and pave their own paths with the Elks.

Six Legacy Awards scholars took this commitment one step further by attending the Chicago Scholar Service Trip in May. While there, they served with organizations addressing clothing needs, fighting food insecurity, supporting veterans, and promoting sustainability.

Does your Lodge have a Legacy Awards winner? Visit secure.elks.org/Leg to find out!

has titled "Be The Difference." Klatt proceeded to give examples of how Elks should continue to make tangible differences in the lives of others: by making veterans feel personally supported, by engaging the youth of our communities through the Drug Awareness Program, Soccer Shoot, and other Elks initiatives; and by retaining the Members that make community outreach possible. Klatt also reminded Elks that each Lodge will have up to $11,000 worth of ENF Community Investment Program grants to use over the course of the coming year. Finally, Klatt encouraged Elks by reminding them that they are "the cream of the crop," and he expressed his profound excitement at being able to travel around the country and see them at work.

Activities Committee Chairman Michael B. Bryant gave his committee's report and announced the results of the Community Projects Contest. He noted that the Soccer Shoot had conducted its virtual national championship, with participation by 26,000 children in 27 states, and congratulated the five boys and five girls who were national champions in their respective age-groups. He also presented the Marvin M. Lewis Award, which honors those Elks who volunteer with Boy Scouts of America programs.

Next, Fraternal Committee Chairman Gwendolyn B. Parker congratulated the winners of the Americanism Essay Contest, which was held in four divisions with the theme, "What Does Patriotism Mean To Me?" The four top winners received a $1,000 prize. She announced that the 2025-2026 contest theme will be "What Does Service to Your Country Mean?" Next, she announced the 18 winners of the All-American Lodge Contest (Page 3).

Ritualistic Committee chairman Steve D. Rysdam closed the session by announcing the final results and recognizing the winners of the national Ritualistic Contest. In addition, the final results of the Callicott 11 O'Clock Toast Contest and the Mulholland Flag Charge Contest were announced. ★
