EXALTED RULER MESSAGE

As Elks, we take pride in making our Lodge a welcoming place for members, family, and guests. When we invite a guest into our Lodge, we also accept the responsibility of making sure that guest understands and respects our Lodge rules.

Members should be mindful of their guest while they are in the Lodge and take responsibility for their conduct. A guest's action can reflect not only on the individual member, but also on the Lodge as a whole.

Being a good host means introducing your guest to others, helping them feel welcome, and making sure they follow the same standards of courtesy and respect expected of our members. If a problem arises, the sponsoring member should take the lead in addressing it. By being a responsible host, we help maintain a safe, friendly, and enjoyable Lodge for everyone.

Bring your guest, welcome them warmly, and take pride in being responsible for those you bring through our doors.

Also remember that you, as a member, bringing them in and when you leave, they leave with you. They cannot stay behind.

And as a reminder, as a sponsoring member of a guest, your guest cannot pay for drinks or food. Only a member is allowed to pay for drinks or food. We cannot accept cash, credit cards or checks from a non-member that violates our Grand Lodge statutes.

Lance Wright
EXALTED RULER

VETERANS CORNER

I have been contacted by a Lodge member that has a project called "Voice of Resilience". She would like to reach out to Veterans and interview them about their time in the military. Please contact Didi Shivers by phone at 435-215-3361 if you are interested in participating.

As you know, the Veterans Committee is headed into the busy time of the year. Work has already started for the Veterans Christmas Tree. Forms have been made for the information of what the Veterans would like for Christmas. These forms will be dropped off at the seven (7) homes we service.

Halloween will find us at the Southern Utah Veterans Home to help at their annual Trick or Treat event. Children from the surrounding neighborhoods in Ivins and the nearby elementary school attend.

The veterans of the home and volunteers, many in costumes, help to distribute the candies. It is a fun time for all. If you would like to help, please contact me.

November we will be holding the annual Veterans Day Luncheon on November 12th. Elk veterans and a plus one will receive free lunch. Check the November newsletter for the time.

Our next Veterans Committee meeting is October 15th at 6:30 pm in the book room. If you are interested in joining the Committee or would like to volunteer for an event, please come to one of the meetings or give me a call.

Remember to always reach out to our Veterans with care and honor.

Drug Awareness News

October is an important month for the Elks Drug Awareness Program as communities across the country recognize Red Ribbon Week, October 23–31.

This year's theme, "Make a Difference. Be a Hero. Stay Drug Free.", is a powerful reminder that prevention does not begin with one program, one school, or one conversation. It begins with each of us choosing to be a positive influence in the lives of the young people around us.

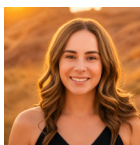

Red Ribbon Week has deep ties to the Elks. The movement grew following the 1985 death of DEA Special Agent Enrique "Kiki" Camarena. Young people and community members began wearing red ribbons in his memory and as a symbol of their commitment to living drug-free. The Elks were involved in the early expansion of Red Ribbon efforts in California, and the campaign eventually became a national movement. Today, that mission remains just as important.

The Elks Drug Awareness Program works throughout the year to educate youth and families about the dangers of drugs and alcohol and to encourage healthy, drug-free choices. Through local Lodges across the country, the program provides educational materials, prevention resources, contests, community events, and opportunities for Elks to serve as positive role models for young people.

But drug awareness is about more than telling kids to "just say no." It is about creating communities where young people feel supported, connected, educated, and confident enough to make healthy choices when those choices become difficult. It means having conversations before there is a crisis. It means parents, teachers, coaches, community leaders, law enforcement, and organizations like the Elks working together rather than assuming someone else will address the issue. And sometimes, making a difference is as simple as being the adult who listens, notices when something has changed, asks another question, or reminds a young person that their future is worth protecting.

This October, I encourage our Lodge members to participate in Red Ribbon Week in whatever way they can. Wear a red ribbon. Talk to the young people in your life. Share prevention resources with a parent or teacher. Support our local drug awareness efforts. Most importantly, continue helping us build a community where our youth know they have people standing behind them.

The 2026 theme calls on each of us to make a difference and be a hero. Heroes do not always wear capes. Sometimes they are parents, grandparents, teachers, coaches, neighbors, mentors, and Elks who simply choose to show up. That is something every one of us can do.

Kash Rocheleau
DAP Chairperson

To Our Absent Members

We shall meet, but we shall miss him,
There will be the vacant chair,
But though we no more possess him,
Still our heart his memory bears,
But a while ago we gathered,
Friendship beaming in each eye.
Now the golden cord is severed,
He has passed on to realms on high.

THE DIXIE LADIES OF THE ELKS

The Ladies of the Elks are off to a busy start this fall, and we have two fantastic events coming up in October. Mark your calendars and find out how you can join in on the fun and service!

The annual Elks eye fair will be held October 10th from 9AM-Noon. It is a true honor to help kids get the vision care they need so they can excel in school. Because this is such a vital community event, many hands are needed to make it a success. If you are able to help out, please reach out to Elaine Heger-Gubler as soon as possible. The event is in need of 50 volunteers.

Polish up your brooms ladies! The Bewitching Luncheon will be held Saturday, October 24th. $15 per person, doors open at 11, lunch served at 11:45 followed by line dancing, a contest for the best witch's broom and an opportunity drawing. Please see Rebecca Yager to secure your tickets.

Kindness is a simple choice, it's easy to do and it will change someone's day for the better. Make a new friend, welcome a new member, share a smile.

TEDDY BEAR CLOSET

The "Teddy Bear Closet" is a community service activity. Please donate new stuffed animals with price tags (or something that shows they are new) to support this project. The stuffed animals are taken to the Emergency Room (ER) at St. George Regional Hospital for children who are in need of a little comfort during their visit to the ER. The hospital will not take used items.

There is a large basket in the hallway to collect the stuffed animals. The committee will deliver them to the ER for distribution.

Your contributions are greatly appreciated. Again, please only new animals with price tags. Thank you for your support.

A reminder of important information regarding guests to the Elks Lodge, from the Secretary.

First, it is great to be back to work after my medical leave, and thank you for all the well wishes. Now to business... First, this is a reminder of rules, statutes, by-laws, and regulations we are required to follow. We operate under the IRS, state liquor and business license boards, and Elks Grand Lodge. If we do not follow the rules, we can be fined or shut-down by any of the above.

1. A guest must be signed-in by an Elk in good standing. The member must know the guest and must stay with the guest while the guest is in the building. If the member leaves, the guest must leave.

2. The guest can not previously have been an Elk and was dropped by a Lodge or left on an absolute dimit. That Elk is considered an unaffiliated Elk. That person who used to be an Elk is not welcome as a guest in an Elks Lodge. They are encouraged to reinstate by seeing the secretary, but they cannot enter an Elks Lodge. If you look it up in the statutes, it is 14.190, or search by "unaffiliated Elks." No exceptions!

3. A guest is not allowed the privilege of purchasing food, drinks, or merchandise at a Lodge. This is set by rules from the IRS, State and Grand Lodge. To protect our status as a 501 (C-8), we must follow this rule. A member who brought the guest must pay for the guest. We verify this by asking to see members' membership cards when making orders. A member can show the card that is on the phone at Elks.org or the physical card that is required to be carried while in the Lodge. (See House Rules in By-Laws)

4. Only Elks in good standing may sign-in a guest. Any employee who is an Elk while on duty may not sign-in a guest. This includes the employed band members who are Elks. Inviting a guest more than three times hurts all the dues paying Elks. If your guests like the Elks so much that they want to come here more than three times, hand them an application and sponsor the membership. It takes all our dues payments to keep the doors open. Free loaders hurt us all.

These are not my rules; these are rules that enable us to have a Charter from Grand Lodge, a private club business license, and a 501 (C 8) status.

Next month I will review membership and responsibilities associated with being an Elk and use of the Lodge as a private club. I will finish the year with the most important word, "Dues."

As always, if you have questions regarding statutes, by-laws, or rules and regulations, talk to an officer or call the office. This is your Lodge; it works best when we work together.

Fraternally,

Betty

Secretary
