The Elks were the founders of modern-day Flag Day, with the introduction of a mandatory service at the 1907 National Convention, and nationwide adoption in 1911. It was not until August 3, 1949 that President Harry S. Truman (himself an Elk) signed Public Law 203, designating June 14th as Flag Day. Our order not only was first to celebrate Flag Day, but made this ceremony mandatory long before the date on which legal observance became a nationwide practice.
