FIDELITY

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
As we enter the second half of our fraternal year, I find myself thinking about the importance of not only looking back at what we have accomplished, but also looking ahead at what we can still accomplish together. We have already put a great deal of time, energy, and heart into this year, but our work is far from finished.
The months ahead give us an opportunity to finish strong. Our charitable work remains at the heart of who we are as Elks. Every donation, fundraiser, volunteer hour, scholarship, youth program, veterans project, and community effort represents an opportunity to make a difference. We also have candidates to welcome and members to engage. Every new candidate has the potential to become an important part of our Lodge and help carry our traditions forward.
We still have many events ahead of us, and each one is an opportunity to support our Lodge, our charities, and one another. Whether you volunteer, attend an event, bring a friend, sponsor a candidate, or simply lend a hand when needed, your participation makes a difference. Finishing strong doesn't mean that every member has to do everything—it simply means that each of us does what we can.
We have every reason to be proud of what we have accomplished so far this year. Now let's build on that momentum and make the most of the months ahead. My hope is that when we reach the end of this fraternal year, we can look back knowing that we gave it our best, worked together, supported one another, and continued to put the principles of Elkdom into action.
Thank you for everything you have contributed so far and for everything you will continue to do. I am grateful to serve alongside you, and I look forward to finishing this year strong—together.

Fraternally yours,
Simon

CHARITY

Members of Canoga Park Elks Lodge #2190

As we move into the heart of the Fall season, it is a wonderful time to reflect on what we are all about and what we are truly here to do. As Elks, our foundation is built upon four enduring principles: Charity, Justice, Brother Love, and Fidelity. While we enjoy great fellowship within our lodge walls, our true purpose shines brightest when we look outward to serve our community. There isno finer example of this mission in action than our committment to the California-Hawaii Elks Major Project, affectionately known to all of us as the Purple Pig. For years, the Purple Pig has been a beacon of hope, proving that “A coin a day so they can walk, talk, see and play.” This vital program provides essential home-based therapy, vision screenings, and specialized equipment to children with disabilities at absolutely no cost to their families. Through these collective charitable efforts, we are directly helping children overcome challenges and thrive. When you drop your spare change into that purple pig at the social quarters, write a check or become a monthly supporter to the Major Project, you aren’t just making a donation, you are fulfilling the ultimate promise of Elkdom. Your are providing a child with a future they might not otherwise have had. Let’s keep our momentum going through the rest of this lodge year. Thank you for your continued generosity, your dedication to our cardinal virtues, and for always remembering who we are and what we are here to do.

Leading Knight

Together, We Keep Our Lodge Strong

As the year comes to a close, we invite our members—near and far—to consider making a year-end donation to Canoga Park Elks Lodge.

Last year, your generous year-end giving made a tremendous difference. Those donations provided the funds needed for important roof repairs and helped us complete the much-needed underground plumbing and drainage project. These improvements not only protect our Lodge today, but help ensure that our facility will continue to serve our members and community for years to come.

Your generosity allows us to do more than maintain our building. It helps us continue supporting the charities and programs that make a difference in the lives of others, while providing a place where our members can gather, serve, celebrate, and make a difference together.

We are incredibly grateful to all of our Lodge members, whether you live nearby or across the country, who continue to believe in and support our lodge. Every contribution, large or small, helps us keep our Lodge strong and our charitable work moving forward.

If you would like to make a year-end gift, you may mail a check to the P.O. Box 9129, Canoga Park, CA 91309, or make an electronic donation by scanning the QR code. A receipt will be emailed for electronic donations.

Thank you, from the bottom of our hearts, for your continued generosity, friendship, and support. Together, we are able to keep our Lodge strong and continue making a difference in our community, for our charities, and for one another. Thank you for helping make your lodge we can all be proud of.

The Crew of the USS Sculpin

On 23 May 1939, off the coast of Portsmouth, New Hampshire the lookouts of the submarine USS Sculpin (SS191) spotted the smoke flare and messenger buoy attached to the sunken submarine USS Squalus (SS192). The Sculpin stayed on station and assisted the USS Falcon (ASR-2) to rescue the surviving 32 crew members. The Squalus was later brought to the surface, repaired and renamed the USS Sailfish (SS192).

On 19 November 1944 USS Sculpin while on her ninth war patrol, was heavily damaged during a severe depth charge attack. With a loss of depth control and taking on water, it was decided to surface and try and save as many crew members as possible. An order was given to scuttle the Sculpin by opening the vents and leaving the hatches open. Captain John P. Cromwell had detailed information concerning the upcoming operation against Tarawa, that under torture, he might reveal that intelligence and chose to remain on board.

Forty-two of Sculpins crew were picked up by the Japanese destroyer Yamagumo. One badly wounded sailor, (William Henry Welch), was thrown back into the sea. The survivors were questioned for ten days at the Japanese Naval Base at Truk Island, then were embarked on two aircraft carriers returning to Japan. IJN Chuyo, carried 21 of the survivors in her hold. On 4 December 1944 the carrier was torpedoed and sunk by the Sailfish and twenty of the American prisoners perished. Ironically, Sailfish formerly Squalus, was the same submarine Sculpin helped locate and rescue four and a half years earlier. The surviving 21 crew members who were placed on the other carrier, worked in the Ashio Copper Mines till the end of the war.

When Our Community Needed Us, We Were There

Tuesday, September 15, was a heartbreaking evening for our Chatsworth community. Just after 5 p.m., a Metro bus and an SUV were involved in a devastating collision near Nordhoff Street and De Soto Avenue, leaving two people dead and several others injured. First responders worked tirelessly at the scene, carrying out difficult rescues and caring for those affected.

As this tragedy unfolded just a block from our lodge, our Exalted Ruler, Simon Coombs, went directly to the scene. Recognizing that our community and those responding to the emergency needed a place to gather, rest and refuel, Simon opened the Canoga Park Elks Lodge to first responders and survivors.

He kept our lodge open until 3 a.m., providing a safe and welcoming place for emergency crews as the rescue efforts and investigation continued.

Thank you, Simon, for your compassion, leadership and willingness to open our doors and offer our lodge's resources when our community needed them most. Your actions are a wonderful example of what Elkdom is all about—being there for others, especially during their darkest moments.

We are proud that our lodge could serve our community in a time of crisis.

MEMBERS AND THEIR INVITED GUESTS

It was a very special and heartfelt evening at Canoga Park Elks Lodge #2190 as we gathered together for our POW/MIA Remembrance Day Dinner. It was more than just a dinner—it was an evening to pause, remember, and honor the men and women who served our country and those who never returned home.

Our evening began with the Sea Cadets presenting the colors, a proud and moving reminder of the meaning behind our gathering. Lodge member Gary Davis then presented the MIA Table Ceremony. Gary's words and presentation truly touched everyone in the room. You could feel the emotion throughout the lodge as we reflected on the empty place at the table and the families who continue to carry the weight of a loved one who never came home. It was a beautiful reminder that these names and these stories are not simply part of history—they are people who must never be forgotten.

A heartfelt thank you to our dedicated kitchen team for preparing such a wonderful homemade lasagna meal and helping make the evening feel so welcoming. We are also very grateful to Jill and Eric Lace for all the time and care they put into arranging the evening's events. Their efforts helped create a meaningful night that our lodge family could share together.

We hope everyone will take a few minutes each month to read our POW/MIA stories featured in the newsletter. These articles about the lives of these men and women are taken directly from historical records, allowing us to learn about the individuals, their experiences, and the sacrifices they endured.

And when you are at the lodge, please take a moment to visit our monthly POW/MIA display in the dining room. Stop, read the story, and remember the person behind the name.

Thank you to everyone who joined us and helped make this evening so meaningful. As Elks, we have a responsibility to remember—and together, we can make sure they are never forgotten.

The more volunteers we have, the less we each need to volunteer!

We need to grow our kitchen volunteers! We have several wonderful cook teams, however, we have a need for a few more volunteers to assist in the kitchen and/or create another cook team. You will be trained on the equipment and learn alongside our seasoned team. Check with Karen or Simon if you want to know more.

Trustees Update

First of all a big thank you to all our members that helped get our lodge ready for Lobsterfest and the Octoberfest rental. Our outdoor picnic area is a wonderful area to have, but it does take a beating in the Southern California sun.

We are preparing for the predicted El Nino storms. We are revisiting areas of the lodge that take a beating from the sun and rain so we can get in front of any problem areas of the building and minimize emergencies throughout winter and spring. We have sealed the leaking area and repaired the ceiling in the men's room. We are also resealing a seamed area of the roof in the game room. Thank you again to our members that lend a helping hand and their knowledge to help maintain the property.

We have held our last outdoor event for the season, so, before our infamous "Santa Ana Winds" make an appearance, we will be removing the picnic area shade screens. I know they have seen better days, and we hope to raise the funds to replace them next year with a lighter fabric and color. This year, we repaired the poles that needed better stability, so next year hopefully finish the updating.

PER Corner

Greeting Members,

Our PER group has been in Summer mode. Vacations, family and busy PER agenda kept us from meeting last month. In October, we are looking forward to the DD visit and are here to help and assist. This month we are focusing on Fraternal obligations and activities. We are also looking forward to our officer training for the lodge (help mentor officers) and are always ready to advise with experience and understanding.

I want to thank the lodge members who attend our PER meeting and offer suggestions and great insights. Thank you all!

Update on PER Frank Farquharson, he's doing well and still has that great twinkle in his eye.

That's all for now!

Our Antlers Serving the Community!

On August 15 and 16, our Canoga Park Antlers were up and running at 7:00 am to help with the Camarillo Air Show. They were assigned parking duty for the event lot K then they were "promoted" to lot H. When their duty was over, they had the opportunity to explore the show! Proudly wearing the Antler shirt, they spoke to people about what Antlers and Elks were all about They learned first-hand in the Veteran Hangar what our Veterans were all about. It wasn't all work and no play. They spent hours in the Science Technology Engineering Mathematics (STEM) pavilion, learning, playing, questioning, playing researching. Finally to the displays from the tank to the planes to the Marines, Air Force, Space Force, Navy and Army academies with many anxious recruiters. I think we saw an Antler with a Annapolis Naval Academy application. Thank you, Antlers , Jason, Emma, Tyson, and Polina for a great experience.
